

Erik Listou

Erik Listou is the co-founder of the Living in Place Institute. He is committed to helping all people live in homes that are accessible, comfortable, and safe. His $100M+ career in residential and commercial building spans 50 years and is recognized with eight national credentials and numerous project and leadership awards. Erik is an educator, public speaker, writer, and organizer. He has taught professional courses for more than a decade. Erik is the former executive director for the Denver Habitat for Humanity and talk radio host and producer.