

Pamela Enders

A psychologist by day and a chanteuse by night, and with a voice that has been described as “smoky, warm, butterscotch-like,” Pamela Enders has entertained audiences at Club Café, Ryles Jazz Club, The Boston Center for the Arts, The Lyric Stage, Club Café, the Blacksmith House, the Encore Cabaret, Jimmy Tingle’s Theater, and the Arts at the Armory in the Boston area and “CabaretFest” in Provincetown. She was one of 36 performers chosen from nationwide auditions to take part in the first Cabaret Conference at Yale University in 2003.

Pamela can break your heart with a touching love song or amuse you when she lets her hair down with a slightly naughty song. Pamela’s repertoire reflects her love of the Great American Songbook seasoned with forays into pop, jazz, and comic numbers.
