4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading	2nd Reading	Gospel
Zeph 2:3;3:12-13	1 Cor 1:26-31	Mt 5:1-12

Today's readings show us how God sees things differently than we do. In each reading, we hear about people whom the world may overlook - those who are weak, poor, or humble. But God lifts them up. He sees their faith and their trust.

The Gospel reading gives us the Beatitudes. Jesus tells us who is truly blessed. It's not the rich or powerful. It's those who are gentle, those who show mercy, and those who suffer for doing what is right. These words are simple, but they show us how to live as followers of Christ.

The other readings also remind us to stay humble. God saves a small group of people in Zephaniah. Paul tells the people of Corinth that God chooses the weak on purpose. The psalm praises God for helping the poor and the needy. These are all reminders that God is close to the lowly.

The message of today is clear. If we want to follow Jesus, we must be small in the eyes of the world. That is where God does great things.

Dispensation from Fasting & Abstinence

The Catholic Bishops' Conference of Malaysia, Singapore and Brunei has granted Dispensation from fasting and abstinence on Ash Wednesday.

The tradition of celebrating the liturgy of Ash Wednesday, with the imposition of ashes, is to be maintained and we are encouraged to observe a day of fast and abstinence on another day in Lent except on Good Friday, which is already a day of fast and abstinence.

I asked God for a bike, but I know God doesn't work that way. So I stole a bike and asked God for forgiveness.
