The Baptism of the Lord

1st Reading	2nd Reading	Gospel
Is 42:1-4,6-7	Acts 10:34-38	Mt 3:13-17

In today's gospel, Jesus goes to the River Jordan to be baptised by John the Baptist. But here's the thing - Jesus never sinned. So why would he need to be baptised? Isn't baptism about washing away sin?

This teaches us something very important about who Jesus is. He didn't get baptised because he needed to be cleansed from sin. He got baptised to show us that He is with us. He didn't act like He was above us. He stepped into our world. He chose to share in our human experience. Jesus did not stand off to the side and tell people how to live. He got in the water with them. He joined them. He joins us. He wants to be close to us in every part of our lives. Jesus didn't come to show off. He came to be near us - in our joy, in our struggles, in our mistakes, and in our hopes. He knows what it's like to be human. He understands what we go through. He came to stand with us so we wouldn't be alone.

Something amazing happens as soon as Jesus is baptised. The sky opens up. The Holy Spirit comes down like a dove. And God the Father speaks from heaven. He says, "This is my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on him." It's a moment where we see the Holy Trinity - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - all present. And it shows that Jesus is fully known, fully loved, and fully sent.

Now here's the part that connects to us. When we were baptised, even if we were babies, God did something very real. He claimed us. He said, "You are my beloved." That's who you are. And that never changes. Even if you forget it. Even if you mess up. You are still God's child. You are still loved.

What does this mean for how we live?

Jesus showed us what it looks like to walk with others. He didn't stay separate. He didn't act too good for anyone. He listened. He cared. He got close. And we are called to do the same.

Our baptism isn't just something that happened once in the past. It's something we live every day. Do we choose to love like Jesus did? To care like he did? To stand with others, even when it's hard? That's what Jesus did for us. And now we get to do the same.
