President's Message

Chris Gullick, President

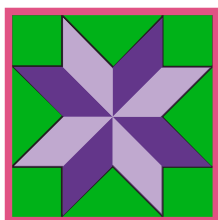

Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, Happy Holidays, Happy Hanukah, or Joyful Solstice. However you say it, this is the time of year to celebrate with good friends and extended family. And celebrate is exactly what we did at our December Guild meeting, wasn't it? The culmination of our quilt challenge, The Challenge of the Century, certainly brought our members out in force – well, maybe the potluck aspect of the meeting helped, too – and we filled that room at the Masonic Family Center to almost overflowing.

Well, starting next month, we won't be stuffed into a room that's too small for our growing membership and all the activity tables that we need. I am happy to say that we have contracted with St. John's Episcopal Church, at 2341 Floral Avenue, to hold our meetings starting in January. The first meeting of the year is pushed back to January 8, as the first Thursday falls on New Year's Day. The place is BEAUTIFUL! I think everyone will be happy and comfortable with the move, and hopefully this venue will serve well for a long, long time. (Is anyone else tired of looking for adequate, affordable space and moving from place to place?)

I am also pleased that we now have a team of Vice Presidents, and I look forward to working with these fun, competent women. Each of the four stepped up to take over a part of the many responsibilities assigned to the VP: liaising with presenters, arranging for their lodging and meals, securing venues for workshops and ensuring they run smoothly, filling in for the President as needed, and booking presenters for the 2026-2027 year. Did I miss anything? It's a big job and it only makes sense for several people to share the work. Thank you, Laura, Jo, Frieda, and Sharon!

New year, new venue, new projects. What are your plans for the year ahead? If you're like me, you're too busy to do much quilting this time of year, but you're thinking ahead to the projects you want to finish and the new ones you want to start in 2026, right? I have seven or eight projects already started that I really do intend to finish, but that certainly doesn't stop me from planning more.

Most important for the year ahead, though, is spending time with family and friends – my quilting friends are high on that list – and making new friends among our members.

Next Meeting:

Thursday, January 8, 2026 6:30 p.m. Doors open at 6 p.m.

St. John's Episcopal Church, 2341 Floral Ave, Chico, CA 95926

A presentation will be given by our small group Loose Bobbins.

From the Vice President

Holiday Greetings to the wonderful members of ASQG. I send warm wishes to you all for a joyous holiday season.

"Everything old is new again," so the saying goes. Thank you for electing me to resume Vice President activities, again. I am especially grateful for the ladies who have stepped up to do the heavy lifting of the Vice President job: Sharon Ouimet, Jo Schreiber & Frieda White

I look forward to researching exciting guest speakers for the coming years and welcome suggestions from you all. If you happen to see or hear an inspiring quilter at a quilt show, please ask for their contact information. I have found several speakers in the past whom I met at quilt shows. I also search local guild websites for their guest speaker recommendations.

The coming year promises to be both entertaining and educational as we welcome both outside speakers and a January presentation by one of our small groups. I look forward to seeing you in 2026. Happy New Year!

2026 ASQG Quilt Show

Joyce Hansen, Quilt Show Chair

Greetings members,

Only ten or eleven months away until the 2026 Quilt Show. That sounds like a long time, but it rolls around quickly.

Two main points I would like to stress. As you all know members are asked to submit at least one quilt to the show. Second, it is one of the most important events to help keep a roof over our heads, for us to continue the guild and assist in our growth.

It's no secret cost of living is increasing substantially. We'll need to step up our efforts to make this next show one of our best.

The Pick a Prize committee is considered extremely important. It is a fun committee and definite money maker for the success of the quilt show. This is also an excellent opportunity for new members to get involved, become known within the guild and make new friends. The job is not difficult, especially doing it with friends. You will receive plenty of support from other members. It is so much more fun with a group of friends. If you or anyone you know would like to volunteer, please contact me.

I'm looking forward to seeing all the committee members on January 22nd at Cindy Needham's studio, 5:30 p.m., 923 Mangrove Avenue, Chico.

YOU can make a difference. We encourage everyone to participate and help make this quilt show a great success!

Community Service

What a wonderful Guild that we belong to!
The Christmas pot luck was so much fun.
Congratulations to everyone that entered a quilt in the "Challenge" this year. I was blown away by all of the talent on display.

Not only was there food, friendship, camaraderie and love shared, but over 30 items were turned in from the membership for our Community Service Projects. Keep up the good work!

Reminder: Dorothy Van Pelt has been organizing the Community Service work days at Cathy's Sew and Vac. The next Community Service work day is December 30, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. She has scheduled the 2026 work days on the third Thursday of every month, so mark your calendars. Bring your own project or help sort our stash or make kits. Remember to bring your sewing machine and sewing supplies!

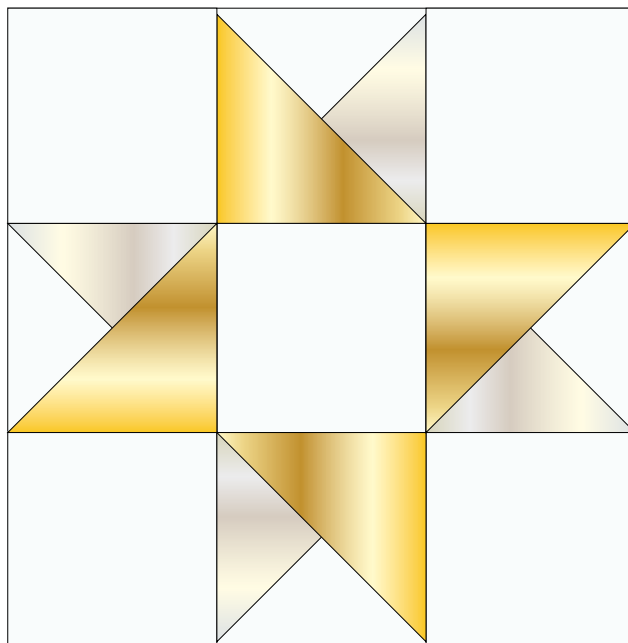

Please feel free to contact me or Dorothy if you have questions or suggestions, or if you are interested in helping. HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

Holiday Potluck

The Challenge of the Century

Minds Blown...

Well done, everyone! One last great big thank you to all who participated in this year's challenge. We are in awe of your amazing quilts. Fifty-eight quilts were submitted. Twelve were from first time participants in an ASQG challenge.

The winning art quilt was created by Denise Van Laan. Marilyn Heidemeyer was awarded the top prize for her traditional quilt.

Next November, our quilt show will have a special display showcasing challenge quilts. Please either save your quilts or make arrangements to borrow them for the show.

The next challenge will be in 2027. We can't wait...
