President's Message

Chris Gullick, President

Hello all you quilt fanatics! Didn't you love seeing all the quilts presented by the Seams 2 Sew group last month (including the two I presented)? I so enjoy seeing what other members of our Guild create. There's so much talent among us that we don't always need to bring in presenters from outside our community, it seems.

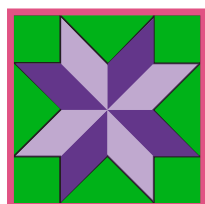

I am so pleased with our new slate of officers – including those of you who are staying on for another year in your positions. The year ahead looks promising! And I appreciate all the work that our out-going officers put in last year. Thank you, so much! The success of the Guild depends on so many volunteers and works best with a lot of people each doing a little bit. Keep that in mind as we approach putting on our Quilt Show.

Meanwhile, our opportunity quilt has continued its travels and brought in some funds from the sale of raffle tickets, and the boutique has been successful at the Farmers Market a few times now. We are still scheduled to have a booth there on September 12th and October 10th. A few people have already signed up to help with those days, but several more will be needed. Please consider helping out during one of the time slots. The Market is really fun - you meet so many interesting people and get to talk about what our Guild does.

The business of the Guild has kept me busy this past month – a fun kind of busy, of course. Here are a few of the things keeping me busy: working with a group of talented members to create our next opportunity quilt; meeting a couple of members for coffee to talk over some new ideas (I'd love to meet with any of you and get to know you better!); scheduling a budget meeting when all the required officers can attend; and helping a committee review the Guild By-laws and Standing Rules. A description of all the changes proposed by the review committee is included in this newsletter. The changes will be discussed at our September general meeting, and if no objections are made or additional changes proposed, the membership can vote to approve them.

I hope to see you all at our September general meeting. The presenter sounds like a great one. Meanwhile, quilt on!

Next Meeting:

Thursday, September 3, 2026 • 6:30 p.m. Doors open at 6 p.m.

LOCATION: Saint John's Episcopal Church,
2341 Floral Avenue, Chico, CA 95926

Ronda Mensching & Karen Ghiles, co-chairs

Fat Quarters for the month of August were purchased at Cali Quilt Co in Roseville. Cindy Thompson, Chair

Acknowledgments and Donation Information

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to all members who have generously donated to Annie's Attic. Your contributions are essential to the success of our upcoming sale, which promises to be wonderful thanks to your support.

If you require assistance with picking up your donation, please do not hesitate to contact me. My phone number is listed in the guild roster. Please remember that the last day to donate is October 1, 2026, coinciding with our guild meeting. You can also drop off your donation at Cathy's Sew & Vac.

Special Donation and Raffle Announcement

Annie's Attic has received a remarkable donation—a highly valued Singer Featherweight sewing machine. This generous gift was provided by Teresa Yocum, a treasured and long standing guild member who has requested that we raffle it off to a guild member.

I will be setting up a table to sell raffle tickets at the September, October, and December guild meetings. Tickets will be available at the following rates: one ticket for $5, or three tickets for $10. The winner will be selected at the end of the December guild meeting.

If you have any questions regarding the raffle or donations, please contact me, Cindy Thompson. You can find my information in the guild roster.

Thank you.

Block of the Month

Cindy Thompson, Chair

Final Phase of the 2026 Block of the Month Project

As we near the completion of our highly successful 2026 Block of the Month project, we would like to remind all members that there are still several blocks available for purchase. If you are looking for specific blocks to finish your collection, please visit our table to see if we have what you need.

Finishing Kit Information

The finishing kit for this year's Block of the Month is now available for sale. Please note that sign-ups for the finishing kit will close at the October guild meeting. The kit, which will be distributed in December, is priced at $45. It includes sashing, an inner border, an outer border, and binding materials. However, the finishing kit does not include the backing fabric, so please plan accordingly.

Upcoming New Block Event

We are excited to announce that our New Block will be featured in September. This means another mystery, with block one being introduced at our September meeting. Each block will be available for just $3.00, making this a great opportunity for members. If you have any questions or need additional information, please feel free to contact me. My phone number is listed in the guild roster.

Thank you.

By-Laws and Standing Rules Review

A committee met July 28, 2026 to review ASQG By-Laws and Standing Rules. The committee includes Parliamentarian Jean Ping, President Chris Gullick, Vice President Laura Yanez, and member-at-large Lori Storm. The committee identified some areas where significant changes are needed, such as allowing for electronic voting, raising dues, and changing the order of general meetings.

The committee recommends the following changes to the ASQG By-Laws:

- Removing the phrase “in California” when referring to Community Service, as the guild sometimes donates for disaster relief outside the state.
- Inserting the word “electronic” in Article III-1 Membership, Section 5-B, referring to new members receiving a membership list.
- Under Section VII-1 Board Meetings, #7 – Emergency Action, change the language of part A from “Requires agreement of no less than two (2) elected officers with two (2) committee chairpersons” to “Emergency actions can be proposed by agreement of no less than two (2) elected officers with two (2) committee chairpersons” and change the language of part B from “Items so approved and acted upon must be reported to the Board at their next meeting” to “Items so proposed must be approved by the Board, which can be done electronically.”
- Correct a typo on page 6: change “in” to “is”.
- In Article VIII-Election of Officers, Section VIII-2-Voting, include the following language after the heading 1-Ballots, “When more than one candidate is running for an office.”
- In Article X – Section X-1 Amendments to the By-laws, - #1 states that any member may propose an amendment to the By-Laws. Remove 1A and 1B, which require that the member submit the proposal in writing at a general meeting and submit it in a monthly newsletter. This seems to be redundant, as #2 through 4 in this section still cover that proposals be published in the newsletter, discussed at a general meeting, and then voted on and passed by a simple majority at the general meeting.

The committee proposes the following changes to ASQG Standing Rules:

- Remove the phrase “in California” when referring to Community Service in several places.
- In Section A-2, Dues, in parts a and b, increase dues from $35 per year to $40, and in c, increase dues paid after March 1 from $25 to $30.
- In Section A-5, Participation in Quilt Show activities, remove part b, which allows sitting with the opportunity quilt at an event to fulfill the requirement to assist with the quilt show.
- In Section E - Meetings, #3 – Order of Business, rearrange the order to the following: a) call to order; b) introductions; c) approval of minutes; d) show & tell; e) announcements; f) old business; g) new business; h) officer and committee reports; i) intermission; j) program; k) drawings; l) adjournment
- In Section J – Community Service, move #3 to #2, which lists organizations served, and add the phrase “but are not limited to;” remove #4, which lists current projects since these change frequently; change the current #2 to #3, which requires that new organizations proposed to be served must be approved by the Board; and the current #5 becomes #4.
- In Section R – Opportunity Quilt
 - Under #3 - Design and Creation, subsection a-1, change from “Make a mini-quilt to preview the design to ASQG members” to “Make a mini-quilt based on the opportunity quilt pattern.
 - Under #4-Event Scheduling, increase the budget for venue charges from a maximum of $100 to $200.
- In Section W – Quilt Show, #6 – Quilt Show Procedure, subsection g should be included with f, to read “Community Service: Sets up a display with samples of items made for Community Service and answers questions about ASQG contributions to the community.
- In Section BB – Workshop Coordinator, add #7 “Arrange for lodging for the speaker/instructor.”

Quilt Show

Joyce Hansen, Chair

Greetings ASQG members,

84 DAYS AND COUNTING (Or is it subtracting?).

In case you missed the announcement, the fairgrounds have given us Thursday for setup at no extra charge, in addition to the other three days for the quilt show. They have also indicated that we will not be charged for parking. Those are huge savings!

Boutique items. Please make items for our Boutique. Not only do we need them for the Quilt Show, there are many other opportunities. We need potholders, coasters, placemats, pillowcases, rope bowls, table runners, small wall hangings, adult aprons, ornaments. Think about ALL holidays.

The Aug. 6th general meeting started the sign-ups to work the Quilt Show at our various ASQG quilt show committees. A big thank you to all who signed up! But we need more of you to volunteer, please. Not only is working the quilt show fun you get free admission to the quilt show both days. It is always fun to join sister quilters in any event. It's especially fun if it is a fund raiser, like the quilt show. The typical work shift is two hours. Join in!!

Molly Fuller has volunteered to chair the Decorating Committee. She will also need help in decorating the event on Friday, the 6th. Sign-up sheet will also be available at the next general meeting. Thank you so much Molly!

Please check back at the next general meeting, September 3, for sign-ups to help with the committees. An attempt is being made to set up an apron loan system for those of you who do not own one. Cindy Thompson has a few she will be selling for $15. If you have questions about any committee, please contact me or the committee chair, their contact info is in the roster:

Admissions: Yvette Borden - volunteers will greet guests, sell admission tickets, attach wristbands, distribute programs, and answer questions regarding the quilt show.
