

Annie's Star Quilt Guild

MAY 2024 • Volume 46, Issue 11

asqg.org

From Your President Peggy Arms, President

May flowers!!

Here come the flowers AND the WEEDS!

ALL MEMBERS!

Have you read the Standing Rules and the Bylaws for our guild? I invite you to go to our website (asqg.org), pull down on the 'More' tab to 'Forms and Newsletters'. If you have suggestions for changes, let me know. We will be rewriting the Bylaws/Standing Rules this year. While there check out 'Small Groups'! The website has much to offer (including back issues of the newsletter) and a BIG thank you goes to Laura Yanez for keeping the website up to date!

REMEMBER...nominations are open for president, vice-president, secretary, corresponding secretary and treasurer! We have nominations for all spots except VICE-PRESIDENT which could be filled by a group and might involve just lining up members/small groups to present. See the nomination form in this issue. Nominations are due by the June meeting!

It is fun to get involved, be with old friends and make new friends! Are you coming to the meetings? Are you selling Opportunity Quilt raffle tickets? Did you go to the guild retreat at Ord Bend? Are you going to the Community Sew days? Have you been to one of the many spring quilt shows? Would you like to form a small group (see Betty Volker)? Are you going on the Mother's Day Shop Hop (contact Missie Carpenter for more details)? Have fun quilting!!!!

Peggy Arms, President

Scoop from the Coop:

Egg production continues to be up and there have been no hidden egg stashes lately (Easter has passed and maybe the hens know hiding eggs is out!). They are however sometimes laying outside the nests...in the manger and in an old wooden fruit box.

My willpower has been challenged with all the baby chicks for sale, but so far, I have not gotten more!

Dot has claimed the manger as her nest!

Even with nice weather, the four 'youngins' continue to come to the patio door for afternoon treats!

We recently got our smallest egg EVER! It was the size of a walnut!

Vice President Laura Yanez, Vice President

Greetings Quilters! Our guest speaker this month is Kathy Allen. She will be sharing her collection of quilts celebrating her love of all fabrics tartan. This meeting will be our last at Little Chico Creek Elementary School. The June meeting will begin our adventure at The Center for Spiritual Living, at 14 Hillary Lane. It will be a Community Sewing night.

After our January speaker Colleen Pelfrey's visit, several members came forward requesting Colleen's workshop on fabric dyeing. Colleen has graciously offered to return to hold a workshop the day after our November meeting. Please let me know at our meeting in May if you would like to attend.

Warm regards,
Laura

Jena Ping, Librarian

The guild library is being dissolved and the books will be available to members for just $2 each. Each month, Jean will have a new box of books for you to look through. We are sad that our new venue has no storage and the library can no longer be maintained, but we hope everyone will take the books they like and have a memento of the guild library.

At Least One Quilt from each ASQG member for the Quilt show!

We are seven months from our quilt show. Vendor recruiting continues. Ten vendors have paid. Of the ten, five are quilt shops. Not Just Quiltz is a recent sign up. Teresa reported the Boutique and Opportunity Quilt made $329 dollars at the Wildflower Festival in Oroville on April 6. Please help by making something for the Boutique and/or volunteer to sit the quilt. The next Boutique/Opp Quilt showing is in Durham at the park on Sat. May 11.

The next quilt show meeting is Wednesday, April 24, at 6:30 p.m. at Cindy Needham's Studio on Mangrove. This is a special meeting to review changes to the quilt registration forms.

ASQG General Meeting Minutes • Thursday, April 4, 2024

Missie Carpenter, Recording Secretary

President Peggy Arms called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. There were 2 guests present, 1 new member joined, and 64 members present.

The minutes of the March meeting were approved. M: Molly Fuller, 2nd: Grace Crocker. Old Business:

The new slate of officers is being worked on. There are a few Board positions that still need filling: Community Service, Opportunity Quilt, Property Manager, Workshops. Please see Peggy Arms or the current chairs for more info re the position. Some Board chairs have been filled: BOM, Parliamentarian, Boutique, Challenge.

Ronda Mensching, chair of the Nominating Committee spoke of her progress – and lack thereof – in completing next year's slate of officers. They are still searching for a President and a Vice President. She pointed out that these positions can also be job-shared. Please come see her or Jill Ramsey to speak about filling these positions.

Workshops/Teresa Yocum:

May workshop is Kathy Allen, a tablerunner, which can be finished in class. Please sign up or this workshop, too, will be canceled. We are having to cancel too many workshops due to lack of interest.

Boutique/Teresa Y.: The next venue we are signed up for is this weekend at the Wildflower Festival in Oroville. One more signup is needed. After that, we are to attend the Durham Spring Festival on May 10 and more signups are needed. Please continue making items to sell.

Applique Group/Beth Carlson, Sharon Farrah presented the completed mini Opportunity Quilt which will go to the member who sells the most OQ tickets.

The Ridge Quilters of Paradise were here with their Opportunity Quilt.

Library raffles/Jean Ping announced the books available for raffle tonight.

Community Service/Millie Lofgren said a new overseer is seriously needed to replace Kathy Thomas. This is mainly just a managerial position, keeping the different chairs organized. There are also quilt tops that need to be quilted. Please come see her.

The old collection of Banners of Hope is being returned to its makers. Some of them are by members who have passed. They will be discussed at the next Board meeting to make a determination regarding them.

VP Laura Yanez introduced tonight's speaker, Nancy Duncan.

Nominating Committee

We are looking for a few great quilters. Lucky us, we have so many great quilters in the guild! We need help in filling some open positions. This is a wonderful opportunity to step up, have fun, meet new people and make great friendships. Our guild does amazing work because of all of us. If we don't fill these positions, our great work will be much harder to complete. The open positions can be filled by one person or a group.

The officer positions have a volunteer or nominated person for all positions except the VP. The board is redefining this position. Details to come on the new role responsibilities. It is a good position for a group of friends. Also, if you are interested in one of the positions that already has a volunteer or nominated person, please let me know. You can still be added to the list of nominees.

The nomination form is on the next page of this newsletter.

We also have some committee chairs that need to be filled. Again, these can be a group of friends too, Please review the list of open positions.

Community Service - management position, reporting and contacting agencies

Opportunity Quilt - scheduling and coordinating appearances of the quilt

Property Manager - managing the storage unit for various activities

Workshops - manage the workshop guest speaker, samples, housing, meals and registration.

Please consider being more active in our guild and accepting one of these most important positions. Contact me if you have questions.

Thanks for your consideration.

Ronda Mensching
