

Annie's Star Quilt Guild

November 2023 • Volume 46, Issue 5

From Your President Peggy Arms, President

November Meeting

Bring:

1. Your completed Challenge Quilt!
2. Items you may have made for the Boutique!
3. Your dues, or $5 if you haven't paid dues.
4. A pen or pencil to vote on your areas of interest in the Quilt Show (A.6. of ASQG Standing Rules "Participation in Quilt Show activities is a requirement of membership.")
5. A seat cushion for comfort. 😊
6. Your Newsletter block and/or Block of the Month, if you made one.
7. Money for raffles (library, fat quarters)!
8. Drinking water, if you like (we may not be able to provide).

To Do:

1. Pay your dues, if you haven't already. 😊
2. Sign up for the Orland holiday fair in November, to sell boutique items and Opportunity Quilt tickets.
3. Complete and turn in the sheet showing your areas of interest in the Quilt Show! Find the form on the bottom of the November Newsletter Block page (separate pdf).

I look forward to seeing you at our meeting!

Scoop from the Coop

Sad news: April missed getting into the coop one night and was taken by a predator! So goes the cycle on the farm. It only meant when I visited the feed store the next day to get more feed I ended up bringing home four 2-week old chicks as well!! 😊
It's called 'chicken math'...minus one, add four!

RIP April

-1+4=Chicken Math

Meet the newest members of the flock!! Two Black Australorps...Sooty and Char (for charcoal). Two Buff Orpingtons...Blondie and Goldie.

Vice President's Report

Laura Yanez, Vice President

Autumn greetings all! The holiday season is upon us. Our November speaker is Daisy Woodhams, just in time for her workshop on using a walking foot for quick quilting. Please see Teresa to sign-up for Daisy's workshop

The Orland craft fair is Thanksgiving weekend. Please contact Char or myself to sign up for your time slot on Saturday or Sunday. For those of you busy creating boutique items, thank you! Char and I will be happy to receive them at the November meeting.

For our December meeting, the BOD agreed to a pot luck dinner, challenge quilt show and voting, and the annual Christmas quilt squares. Please join us for an evening of friendship and celebration!

Warm holiday wishes,

Laura Yanez

Vice President, ASQG

Small Groups

Betty Volker

To our small groups: The leadership has asked me to gather info on our small groups. (No, it's not for a sales pitch.) Just more info on our activities.

Could you, would you send me:

1. name of your small group
2. names of members in your group
3. how often you meet.

Don't worry if I get duplicates, I'll sort the emails.

Email: Bettyinchico@gmail.com

Being in a small group adds so much to your life. Sharing your art, learning new things, being challenged to learn new things, and sharing your life. Are you in a small group? Is your group open to taking in a new member? Or are you a new and returning member and want to find new friends in your fellow quilters. I'm willing to help coordinate the forming of a new group or help find an established group that is willing to take a new member. Please contact me if you're interested.

ASQG Christmas Quilt Block Exchange Starting Up

Make a Christmas or holiday block of your choice.

It can be pieced or appliqued, but it should measure 12 1/2" unfinished (12" finished). The exchange will take place at our December meeting and a prize will be awarded for the best block.

For the exchange, take a small piece of white or unbleached muslin, iron it to a piece of freezer paper for stability and attach it to a seam on the BACK side of the block. On this label, you will write:

Made by: your name

Received by: _____ (and the year) 2023

Wrap the block around a paper towel tube and cover with wrapping paper.

If you bring a block you may pick one up from the basket. After the blocks are opened and the recipient's name is printed on the back, these will be collected, hung and judged by the membership present. A prize will be awarded for the best block. You will then get to take your gift block home.

If you bring two blocks, you can keep one and trade one.

IN a few years, you will have enough blocks for a Christmas/Holiday quilt.

2023 Annie's Star Quilt Guild Challenge Turn-in at November Meeting

Beth Carlson

WOW!!! It hardly seems like we have almost come to the end of ASQG Challenge 2023! The November 2nd guild meeting is the day to turn in your masterpieces of the Doorway Challenge, which is sponsored by the guild's Applique Group.

If you haven't started yet, here is the basic information.

- The theme is "Doorways"
- It should be 20" wide, any length up to 30"
- It needs to be quilted and finished with binding and a 4" sleeve on the upper back side.
- Your "Doorway" may be imaginary, a real location, a literary feature, a fantasy/idea, or a geographical feature. BE CREATIVE!!!

A few members of the ASQG Applique group will be collecting the pieces at the November guild meeting. Your masterpieces will be well taken care of while in our possession.

Please put a label on the back, with your name and phone number. The label can be inked, written, sewn, pinned, made of cloth or paper. If you wish to enclose your piece in a pillowcase or plastic bag, please make sure it is also labeled with your name and phone number.

The pieces will be returned to the makers after the December guild meeting, where they will be displayed for members to vote for their favorite. You will be asked to put a more permanent label on when entering it in Quilt Show 2024.

If you need more information, contact Beth Carlson or another member of the Applique group. Happy Quilting!

ASQG Opportunity Quilt Visits Pine Tree Quilt Guild in Grass Valley

Will someone please volunteer to take our Opportunity Quilt to Pine Tree Quilt Guild in Grass Valley on November 7, 2023? You can bring a friend or two. It is fun to see how other meetings are run.

Pine Tree Quilt Guild meetings are held at:
Grass Valley Charter School at Hennessy
225 S Auburn St, Grass Valley, CA 95945

November 7, 2023

Set up is from 5:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Meeting starts at 6:30 p.m.

I also have parking information and was told we could leave at their break.

Please contact me, Carol Golden, Opportunity Quilt Scheduler to guild meetings, 530-518-8193 carolgolden69@gmail.com if you can do this!

Workshops

Teresa Yocum, Workshop Chair

Please join us and learn a new skill or improve your technique.

November Workshop

Daisy Woodhams: Learn machine quilting on your machine

Friday, November 3, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Honey Run Classroom, $40

Daisy writes: For quilting, I enjoy ruler work and stencils. I do some free-motion quilting, but it is still an adventure! Of course, I still like using a walking foot. I enjoy making pieced quilts using my own patterns, or I choose patterns where I can learn new techniques or hone my skills. These quilts are usually donated to the community. But, I really enjoy creating art quilts which usually involve appliqué combined with piecing, paints, and inks.

December: No workshop

ASQG General Meeting Minutes • Thursday, October 5, 2023

Missie Carpenter, Secretary

President Peggy Arms called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. There were 20 visitors, and 64 members present.

Minutes of the September meeting were approved. M: Sue Good, 2nd: Deborah Barrett.

Announcements:

Valley Quilt Guild was present with their Opportunity Quilt.

Peggy thanked and complimented everyone for wearing hats. She also thanked everyone that made President's chicken blocks.

Sue Good spoke a bit about the merits of being Quilt Show chair. For the last quilt show she shared the job with 2 others, which helped share the responsibilities.

Old Business:

WE NEED A QUILT SHOW CHAIR, A BOUTIQUE CHAIR, AN OPPORTUNITY QUILT CHAIR!!!

Challenge Quilts are due at the Nov. meeting.

New Business:

Our new official meeting place is now Little Chico Creek Elementary School.

We need regular volunteers to hold quilts for our speakers during their presentations. See VP Laura Yanez.

Kathy Thomas/Community Service said that she still needs a chair for the Baby Steps program to deliver items made by members to NVCCS. Sutter Medical Center said for now, they do not need dolls, heart pillows or beads of courage bags, but do need pillowcases and baby quilts.

VP Laura Yanez said that we will be taking the Boutique to the Orland Craft Fair, the week-end after Thanksgiving. She and Char Miller will be setting up and need a few more volunteers to help work. She also asked for program ideas for the December meeting. Suggestions were showing of the Challenge quilts, Christmas block exchange. She then introduced our speaker, Grace Crocker.

Break.

For those who bring refreshments, please pick up and remove any leftovers.

Drawings:

Newsletter Block: Stella Nelson, Jill Ramsey

Block of the Month: Deborah Barrett

Library: Jill Ramsey, Carol Jemison

Fat Quarters: Kelly Knox, Stella Nelson, Sue McHarg, Phoebe Winter

Show and Tell.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Missie Carpenter, Recording Secretary
