From Your President

Kelly Knox, President

I may still be a little bit giddy from our last meeting. What a terrific night! As far as I am concerned, any time spent with Arlene Arnold is time well spent. Let's all help her prove to the CHQP that northern California has much to offer. Get your quilts indexed.

We had a very good turnout at the April meeting, and I dare say, a lot of fun! I guess that old adage, "the more the merrier" really is true! Thanks to all who attended and a hearty welcome to our newest and returning members. We are so glad that you are a part of our community. Should you have any questions or need more information, please reach out by phone or email, or ask questions at the meetings. This is an inclusive organization that is better when everyone is involved.

Congratulations to Beth Carlson, our 2026 Featured Quilter! We are looking forward to her exhibit. I also want to comment on how impressed and proud it made me to learn that Beth had made the label for the California Sesquicentennial Quilt. There is truly greatness in our midst.

A big thank you to Marilyn Knox, our uncoerced, Queen Mother, Member-at-Large, Sharon Ouimet VP and Kathy Thomas Ringleader of Community

Service, for forming our Nominating Committee for the 2025-2026 term. If you are interested in becoming a board member, please speak to one or all of these women. It is their job to present a slate of officers to membership at our July meeting. Let's make it easy on them and volunteer before they have to ask!

One last thing, if you have an interest in participating in the making of our 2026 Opportunity Quilt, please join us for our first meeting, Sunday, April 27, 2025 at 2 p.m. We are meeting at the Sew Mates studio at 932 W. 8th Ave. We are looking for folks who want to sew some beautiful seams and folks who love to press fabric. We also want you, yes you, the whiz with the rotary cutter. Bring your skills, your ideas and your can-do attitude!

And in the end

The love you take

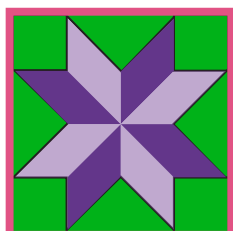

Is equal to the love you make

See you soon.

Kelly Knox

Boutique

Suzanne Steele

The Boutique is cruising right long thanks to the generosity of members donating their time and creativity. Thank you for spending your valuable time at the Wildflower and Nature Festival: Char Miller: Who stayed all day from set-up to take-down), Jean Ping, Jeanne Haber, Lee Ann Sellal, and Linda Austin. ASQG also had a presence at Honey Run during the Shop Hop thanks to Shelley Livingston, Peggy Arms and Betty Volker.

Member Profile: Diane Silver

Like most quilters, my mother taught me to sew when I was very young. By high school I made most of my own clothes. I didn't do much real sewing for the next 30 years, just mending and the occasional Halloween costume. My mother, now 93, has been quilting for many years. About 15 years ago I started helping her with her quilts. When I had to teach elementary school from home in the spring of 2020, I decided to use my spare time making simple quilts for the grandkids. It snowballed from there. I really enjoy the math of quilting. It's like a giant, beautiful puzzle. I use a walking foot to quilt. On larger projects I usually quilt half at a time then attach them in a QAYG fashion. I'm hoping someone out there will teach me how to free-motion quilt. I'm looking forward to meeting more of you.

Submitting to the Quilt Index

In submitting quilts to the Quilt Index (as presented by Arlene Arnold at our last meeting), here are some tips.

The site to use if you wish to fill out the form online is <https://kora.quiltindex.org/files/1-151-48/QuiltIndexformPS-fill.pdf>

Once you go to the site and begin filling out the form you need to complete the task at one sitting; it does not save until later.

When adding photos, you need to email them as attachments rather than adding them to the form itself.

Before beginning to complete the form, it helps to read the entire form and gather the information needed first.

When you have finished completing the form (not all questions need to be answered!), you will email it with any photo attachments to:

Elizabeth Donaldson at donald20@msu.edu

Hope this helps!

Peggy Arms

California Heritage Quilt Project's California Sesquicentennial Quilt Label

The California Heritage Quilt Project's California Sesquicentennial Quilt label was made by Beth Carlson.

The quilt label is about 5 x 7 in. on 36 count linen, with 15-16 different stitches. Every row or pattern section is worked in an "overdyed" thread, in several different colorways by several different manufacturers.

Community Service Newsletter Report 2025

Kathy Thomas, Community Service Chair

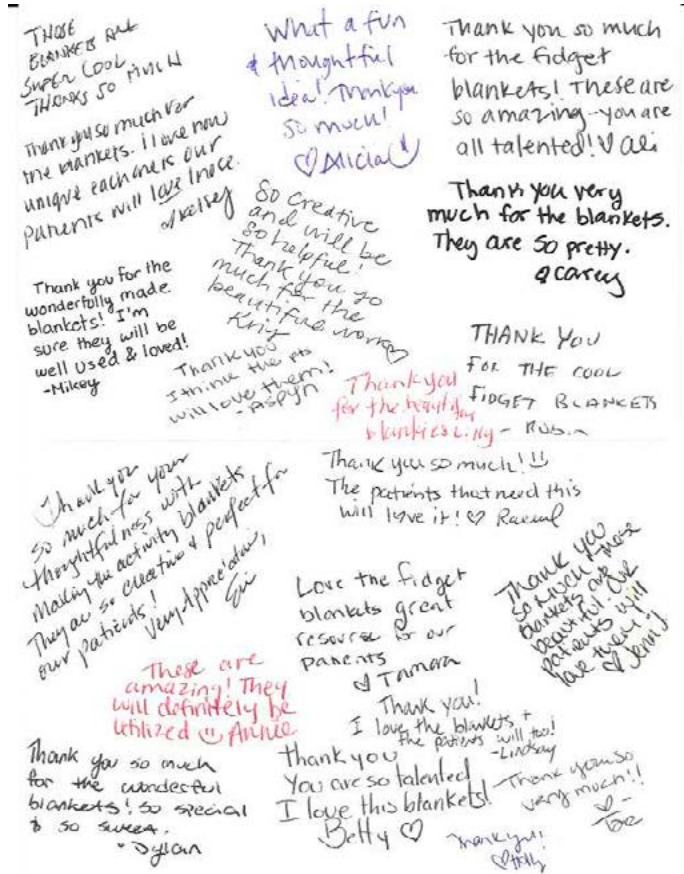

What is a fidget quilt? They are a type of therapeutic tool designed to provide sensory stimulation and promote relaxation. Our Guild makes fidget quilts and donates them to Enloe Medical Center, Memory Care Unit. We have donated 10 fidget quilts this fiscal year to their program. They have been very pleased with this donation. It is always nice to know that our efforts are appreciated. They have sent us two thank you notes and I would like to share some of that with you.

Let's keep up the good work. If you are interested on sewing a fidget quilt, please let me know. We have fabric and supplies to make them and I would be happy to offer my suggestions. I can also make up a kit for you!

Thanks to the members that have been participating in the sew days.

We have been accomplishing lots! We have two different days and times per month scheduled through the end of this year. Please pick up the schedule handout at the next meeting.
