November 2024 • Volume 47, Issue 5

From Your President

Kelly Knox, President

Hello Annie's Star Quilt Guild! As I write this message, I am sitting in my house, with all of the doors and windows open, air conditioning off and a sweater on my shoulders, once again believing that we may get autumn after all! Nature is on our side as we prepare for our biggest, most important event, Harvest of Quilts.

Our quilt show teams have been working tirelessly for months to ensure that we have a great event. They have dodged and weaved and taken on every one of the many surprises and challenges put in their paths. I am so excited to see the commercial building, a new space for us, filled with beautiful works of fiber art, a variety of vendors and so many happy faces, enjoying the show!

Thanks to everyone who has contributed their time and talent to making Harvest of Quilts what I know will be a huge success. The revenue from this event will allow us to continue our good works for the next two years and help us to bring in celebrity quilters and workshops. Please spread the word, share the love, and bring a friend. All are welcome at the Harvest of Quilts.

Before I sign off and let you get back to your preparations, I want to remind you that the election is just days away. Please VOTE!

Kelly Knox

A Letter from your Vice President

Sharon Ouimet, Vice President

We are ready for the quilt show! I can't wait to see all of the wonderful quilts you have been working on November 2nd and 3rd. This month, in November, we have our group, Material Girls, presenting at the group meeting on November 7th. So many fantastic quilters reside in our community. It's great to see how talented you all are.

In December, we are having a dinner potluck. Get your favorite recipe out!

A big thank you to the Applique Small Group for presenting at the October meeting. It was wonderful seeing all the amazing quilts!

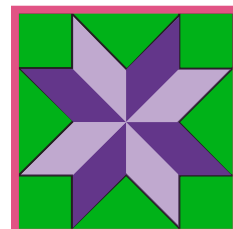

Meeting Check-in

SIGN-IN, please! The Hostess Committee would like to remind you to check in with us at the front door before the meeting! Thank you.

Next Meeting

Thursday, November 7, 2024 at 7 p.m.

The Center for Spiritual Living, 14 Hillary Lane

Workshops

Chris Gullick and Frieda White

As new Workshop co-chairs, Frieda and I are looking forward to hosting some exciting teachers in 2025 and learning some new techniques from these talented quilters. Once all of our lives settle down, after the Quilt Show and the holidays, it will be time for taking on new projects with the new year and learning ways to improve our quilting expertise.

In January, we have Sandra Bruce presenting at our general meeting but not providing a workshop. Sandra is an amazing presenter, and it's been several years since she has visited our Guild. We look forward to hearing her and seeing some of her beautiful quilts.

My apologies for misspeaking at our October meeting, when I said that Yvonne Phenicie would present to our Guild in January and offer a workshop. She is scheduled for February, with her workshop "Modern Journey." By then we will all definitely be ready for a workshop, won't we? I hope to have a sample of her work at one of our next meetings, but meanwhile, I am including a snapshot of her Modern Journey pattern.

Challenge Ahead

That's right, Folks!

The 2025 ASQG Challenge is just up ahead. Signups start in January. We hope you'll plan to join the fun.

Current Events

Missie Carpenter

As of this date, these events are still happening, but before hitting the road to go, it might be wise to verify via the Internet that there have been no cancellations.

Nov. 2-3: Annie's Star Quilt Guild quilt show, Silver Dollar Fairgrounds, Chico.

Nov. 8-9 (Fri. & Sat.): Pioneer Quilters Guild quilt show, Mahany Fitness Center, 1545 Pleasant Grove Blvd., Roseville.

Jan. 22-25: Road to California quilt show, Ontario Convention Center, Ontario, CA.

Feb. 20-23: QuiltCon Phoenix, Modern Quilt Guild quilt show. Phoenix Convention Center, Phoenix. quiltcon.com

Membership

Ronda Mensching and Peggy Arms

Currently we have 94 active members for the year 2024-2025. We would really like to add to that number and get back to our 140 membership number from last year. If you have forgotten to pay, we will still take your money. If you are over 80, you no longer need to pay the dues but we would like to have an updated membership form from you. We have all been challenged by our President to bring two new quilters into the guild.

Remember if you have entered quilts into the show next month, you need to be a member in good standing. That means having your paperwork filled out for the year and your dues paid.

Thank you! Contact Ronda or Peggy if you have questions.

ASQG Christmas Quilt Block Exchange

Make a Christmas or holiday block of your choice. It can be pieced or appliqued, but it should measure 12 1/2" unfinished (12" finished). The exchange will take place at our December meeting and a prize will be awarded for the best block. For the exchange, take a small piece of white or unbleached muslin, iron it to a piece of freezer paper for stability and attach it to a seam on the BACK side of the block.

On this label, you will write:

Made by: your name

Received by: _____ (and the year) 2024.

Wrap the block around a paper towel tube and cover with wrapping paper. If you bring a block you may pick one up from the basket. After the blocks are opened and the recipient's name is printed on the back, these will be collected, hung and judged by the membership present. A prize will be awarded for the best block. You will then get to take your gift block home. If you bring two blocks, you can keep one and trade one. In a few years, you will have enough blocks for a holiday Christmas quilt.

Corresponding Secretary

Please let me know via text or call (530-519-1361) when a ASQG member deserves a card of encouragement, sympathy, or congratulations. I will reply to let you know I got your message. If you don't receive my reply, please let me again.

ASQG General Meeting Minutes

Thursday, October 3, 2024

Rochelle Livingston, Recording Secretary

President Kelly Knox called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. She welcomed everyone to the meeting. There were 3 guests, 1 new member joined and 58 members present.

The break room (adjacent room) has all the committee tables and activities. Please sign-up for Quilt Show Committees during the break.

Rocklin Quilt Guild was present with their Opportunity Quilts on display with raffle tickets available.

Minutes of the September 5 meeting were approved. M: Sue Good; 2nd: Peggy Arms.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Kelly gave a brief overview of the meeting that will focus on the coming Quilt Show.

OLD BUSINESS:

1) Open Committees:

a) Opportunity Quilt: We do not have a committee chair for the Opportunity Quilt Committee. Kelly will book guilds to attend with their Opportunity Quilts. A chairperson is needed to plan the 2025-2026 Opportunity Quilt and to be responsible to travel to other guilds and events with the Opportunity Quilt.

b) Property Manager:

Kelly gave a brief description of the duties for a Property Manager Chairperson. Please speak to Kelly if you are interested in volunteering for this position.

2) Dues/Membership:

There are 73 members enrolled and dues paid at the end of September.

NEW BUSINESS: No new business presented

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Block of the Month: Amanda Andres & Jean Ping. This month's block is Maple Leaf.

Community Service: Kathy Thomas presented the end of year report for community service donations.

There were a total of 1045 items donated. Donated were:

213 quilts, 219 placemats, 214 pillowcases, 120 dolls, 114 heart pillows, 80 bead bags, 32 dog & cat beds, 12 fidget quilts and 41 other items. She explained the collaborative process for quilts. There are quite a few unfinished quilts to be finished, but there won't be any more prepared until January.

Fat Quarters: Ronda Mensching & Karen Giles. This month the Fat Quarters are from Sew Smart in Los Molinos.

Library: Jean Ping has 2 books available for drawing tonight.

Quilt Show: Judy Riley. Report during Program part of the meeting.

Vice President: Sharon Ouimet. Sharon reported one of our small group, Material Girls will present the program in November. December potluck will be at the Masonic Lodge in Chico.

Details for the December potluck will be given at the November meeting.

PROGRAM: Sharon Ouimet introduced tonight's speaker, Judy Riley, chairperson of the 2024 Quilt Show.

Judy reminded us we are 30 days from the quilt show at the Silver Dollar Fairgrounds Commercial Building. The quilt show committee chairpersons were introduced. Judy gave information and instruction details on parking, logistics of the fairgrounds, quilt preparation, delivery and pick-up, Food Truck menu, wristband distribution for those working at the show, etc. Carin Dougherty has volunteered to be the quilt show photographer and will take candid photos at no cost during the show. She will put together an online gallery and members may purchase prints if desired. There will also be a link on our website.

Several committees still need volunteers. Please sign up in the break room tonight. Committee Chairs will contact volunteers for instructions and reminders.
