From Your President

Kelly Knox, President

As we roll into this new year, 2025, I want to take a moment to wish each of you a very happy, healthy year. My hope for each of us is, enough. Enough of what sustains us and enough of what inspires us.

As guild members, we have a lot to look forward to in 2025. An exciting new Challenge, great local speakers and so very many opportunities to make someone else's day a little brighter.

Cheers! Kelly

A Letter from your Vice President

Sharon Ouimet, Vice President

I trust you all are having a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I am looking forward to the year ahead and the wonderful guests we will have speaking. I expect that many of you will be making the Challenge Quilt over the coming year. I'm sure the results will be amazing. Thank you to so many of you who showed us your previous year's challenge quilts. They were all interesting and fabulous.

Regarding our speaking schedule, Sandra Bruce will be speaking at our meeting on January 2nd at 6:30pm at the Center for Spiritual Living.

You can check out some of her work at: https://sandrabruce.com/quilt_gallery.html

Over the coming year, our speakers include Linda Schmidt, Beth Carlson, Yvonne Phenicie, Scarlett Rose, Anelie Beldon and so many others. Thanks to former Vice-President Laura Yanez for scheduling such a talented bunch.

That's all for now. See you in the new year!

Workshops

Chris Gullick and Frieda White

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! I know all of us are thoroughly caught up in the events of the season, but it's not too soon to be thinking about next year and enrolling in an up-coming workshop.

In January, we have Sandra Bruce presenting at our general meeting but not providing a workshop. Sandra is an amazing presenter, and it's been several years since she has visited our Guild. We look forward to hearing her and seeing some of her beautiful quilts.

In February, Yvonne Phenicie will present to our Guild and offer a workshop entitled "Modern Journey."

This is a rare SATURDAY workshop to be held February 8, which should be convenient for members who are still holding down jobs. Many of you saw her quilt sample at our November meeting, but I am including a photo for those who missed it. The workshop roster is filling up fast, and the Sew Mates Studio where this workshop will be held is limited to an enrollment of 12. Please contact one of us if you are interested. Once 12 are enrolled, we can start a wait list. If you have signed up for this workshop, please submit the $40 fee at our January meeting to secure your spot.

Modern Journey Quilt Pattern

Annie's Star Fund Raising

I am going to start a fundraising table at guild. All monies will go into the guild's main fund. At the January guild meeting, I will be raffling off some of Judy Johnson's quilts. Tickets will be $1 each. The first one will be an art quilt Judy made when she was featured quilter in 2003. She called it: Maroon Bells. It is a raw edge landscape quilt. Please support this effort for the guild and to get Judy's quilts out into the world to be seen and appreciated. Bring money!

Thank you, Carol Golden

To thank Judy Riley for her heroic (and successful) efforts in chairing our 2024 Quilt Show, the Guild made a donation to the Chico Friends of the Library in her name. This letter was sent by the organization.

Welcome to our ASQG 2025 Challenge

The Challenge of the “Century”

A Look at the 20th Century through the lens of traditional and art quilting

The time has come for details to be delivered, decades to be drawn and designs to be determined. Let the fun begin.

The other day, I (Bonnie) was reading about quilt challenges. One woman wrote, “Quilt challenges are the threads that bind us.” It’s a fitting analogy. Quilt challenges give us, as a guild, the opportunity to connect, work toward a common goal, and create something wonderful, together.

To those who’ve signed up. Thank you. Stop by our table at our January meeting and draw your challenge package. To those who may be leary of joining or weary of adding one more thing to their to do list we hope you’ll choose to join us on the journey. We’ve worked hard to craft a challenge that is doable for quilters of all skill levels, quilting genres, and can be as time friendly as you choose. You can sign up at Thursday’s meeting.

To everyone, we’ll be here, with you, every step of the way, to cheer you on, and help you be successful.
