President's Message

Chris Gullick, President

As usual, there is so much happening in our Guild! And here I thought that summer was supposed to be our slow season.

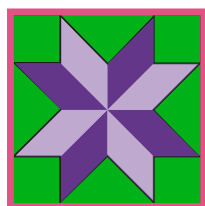

From the end of May until the beginning of July, I was on an extended trip, pulling our little trailer through numerous states and provinces, but I kept in touch with various Guild officers and chairpersons. I heard that the community sew night in June and our birthday party/potluck in July were both well attended, enjoyable, and successful, albeit there were some snafus at St. John's for the potluck – all my fault, I admit, and I apologize, and apologize, and apologize. I promise I will not travel so much next year, if you want me to stay on as President for another term.

The big decision made during my absence, on which I emailed my thoughts and opinions to several people, was to proceed with our Quilt Show as originally planned. The conundrum arose when the Fairgrounds blind-sided us with an additional, over-the-top charge for our set-up day on Thursday, which threatened to eliminate or greatly reduce any profit our show would make. Then, after our panic, discussion (or argument), and vote, we decided we could rearrange and do without that extra day. After all that, the Fairgrounds management backed up and let me know that we could have the day without charge after all. Oh my! What a kerfuffle!!! I am so glad we can have the show. (Can you hear my sigh of relief?) However, let's rethink how we do our quilt shows and plan ahead for 2028. Once this show is past, a committee will be needed to explore ideas for the future.

In addition to planning for the Quilt Show, other things are going to keep us busy: a booth at the Farmers Market once a month, Opportunity Quilt travels, wonderful presentations at our next few meetings, and some very interesting classes to be offered. Our booth at the Farmers Market was a success in June – thank you to Molly Fuller for coordinating that one! I have coordinated it in July, but someone needs to take over for August 8, September 12, and October 10. Please step up and I'll coach you in how to do it.

My summer travels were fun, but I am so glad to be home and back in my sewing room, looking through the projects I have started. I had actually forgotten about a couple of them, and I'm having fun picking them up again. I also missed my quilting friends – let me know if any of you want to meet for coffee sometime. Meanwhile, quilt on!

Donations

Hello wonderful ASQG members,

I wanted to provide an update on the progress of donations for Annies Attic. We have been collecting donations from our members, but unfortunately, the uncertainty surrounding whether we would have a show has significantly reduced the number of donations we received.

How to Donate

If you have anything you would like to donate, please feel free to bring it to our monthly guild meeting. I have a donation box ready and waiting for your contributions. Alternatively, you can drop off donations at Cathy's Sew & Vac, where we also have a bin available for you.

If you need assistance getting your donation out of the house, please do not hesitate to give me a call. My contact information can be found in the guild roster. I am more than happy to offer a convenient door stop service to help with your donation.

Thank you for your generosity and support.

Boutique

Suzanne Steel

The Boutique did well at the Farmers' Market on July 11th. $105 cash and $159 charged via the SQUARE. I encourage others to get the SQUARE on your phone. It's easy and safe. People are more willing to charge an item rather than pay with cash. Usually Farmers' Market customers bring cash only for the produce they purchase.

Thank you to Betty and Steve Volker for returning the equipment and merchandise, plus setting up and taking down. Chris Gullick hauled the equipment and merchandise to the Farmers' Market and set-up. Thank you also to Sharon Farrah, Jane Edelstein, Nancy McCartney, Erica Sherwood, and Beth & Michelle Carlson for working in our booth.

Our next Farmer's Market is August 15. It's fun to represent the guild and interact with all the people coming by to admire our beautiful merchandise. We'll still be in summer, so make things with bright colors, but Fall is on its way. It's too hot to work outside, so SEW, SEW, SEW!

Thanks for all your contributions.

Sharon Farrah and Suzanne Steel, in the Boutique booth, were featured in a Chico Farmers' Market video.

Quilt Show Update

Joyce Hansen, Chair

Countdown: 5 months until the Quilt Show!

Please consider donating gently used items to Annie's Attic, chaired by Cindy Thompson. We are also looking for new items for Pick a Prize, chaired by Char Miller and Kathy Thomas, as well as donations for Fabulous Fabric Bundles, chaired by Melissa Maxey.

Items may be dropped off in the designated tubs in the classroom at Cathy's Sew & Vac or brought to an ASQG General Meeting.

I am hearing lots of talk about members preparing quilts for the show, and I am looking forward to seeing all the beautiful works of art created by our very talented members.

During our July birthday celebration, Grace Crocker kindly shared the advantages of having our quilts judged by a professional judge. Judging is not just about checking seams for perfection; it is also an opportunity to learn how we can improve our workmanship. As Grace noted, she once had the same quilt judged in two separate shows by two different judges. One judge was very impressed with a particular fabric in the quilt, while the other felt that same fabric took away from the overall appearance of the quilt. I, for one, will have my quilt judged. A special thank-you to Grace for presenting this helpful information.

We still need someone to chair the Decorating Committee,

In August, September and October a Quilt Show table will be available at the General Meetings for members to sign up for volunteering in all areas of the Show. A condition of membership is that all members fill a volunteer position on the weekend of the show. Volunteering gets you free admission to the show. Please sign up at the monthly meeting.

Betty Voker's Potted Plants quilt from the 2024 ASQG Quilt show

Cindy Thompson and I attended a Quilt Show Success meeting presented by NCQC in Pleasant Hill this past week. It was so informative and inspirational that we both came away encouraged as we move forward with this year's show. I also took advantage of the trip and delivered Quilt Show postcards to a couple of local quilt stores there, including The Cotton Patch in Lafayette, a very quaint shop with a great fabric selection. If you are visiting the area, be sure to stop by.

Our next Committee Chair Meeting will be held at 5:30 p.m. on August 27, 2026, at Casa de Flores MHP Clubhouse, 701 E. Lassen Ave., Chico. All members are welcome. WE WILL BEGIN HOLDING MONTHLY MEETINGS UNTIL THE SHOW IN NOVEMBER.

Community Service

Amanda Andres, co-chair

For the past two years, Ronda has led our Baby Steps community service project, supporting Northern Valley Catholic Social Services, which serves caregivers of infants and toddlers throughout Butte County.

Over the years, our guild has donated quilts, toddler blankets, bibs, burp cloths, washcloths, towels, and changing pads. Last year alone, we donated an amazing 258 handmade items! This year, Baby Steps requested only two dozen quilts and toddler blankets, and thanks to our generous members, we have about 20 quilts and blankets ready to donate.

A heartfelt thank-you to Ronda for coordinating this project and to everyone who contributes. If you'd like to help with future Baby Steps donations, please contact Ronda Mensching, you can find her info in the guild roster.

Please join us at one of our August Community Service days:

Thursday, August 20, 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.
Cathy's Sew & Vac.

Wednesday, August 26, 6 – 8:30 p.m. at Sheridan Square apartments rec room, 1301 Sheridan Ave.
Please RSVP to Jane Edelstein.

Community Service in Action

ASQG sewists pose with clothes protectors they made, at CalPark Post Acute Hospital. 75 clothes protectors have been donated by ASQG. Jane Edelstien is the leader of this ongoing Community Service effort.

Baby Steps

Ronda Mensching

Thank you to all that have made baby quilts and blankets this year for the Baby Steps program. Shout out to the Ditzzy Friends group for four wonderful I SPY quilts and also to Amanda for four rag quilts turned in at the July meeting. If you have any outstanding, please turn them in at the August meeting. I will be delivering them to NVCSS after our board meeting. Final numbers will be reported in September.
