DESCRIPTION:

We need someone to help us build connections with local businesses, to help get our products and services out to the public to help expand our company and to give assistance with shows and events when needed. This company is owned and run by an English speaking person and we need someone with native level Japanese skills. Join our team, help us grow and grow with us!

-This is a unique opportunity to learn the basics of running a small company run by a native English speaker where you can improve your written and spoken English skills for working with foreign people as well as seeing how a small company works.

-This is a part time job with the potential for long term employment if the 'fit' is right.

-Pay is issued in the first week of each month for the month prior. The latest date for deposits is the 11th of any given month. Details will be given upon hire.

-All work is done on our computers with our programs unless otherwise discussed.

-Earn extra money while your children are at school, in your free time, or to supplement your income while practicing English.

-Earn some extra money while still in college while improving your English skills on a part time basis.

Great opportunity for stay at home wives and mothers too.

Requirements:

Native level Japanese speaker is a requirement with advanced/expert/native level English skills
