Don Behrens: "I am a classically trained, conservatory educated former musician and music teacher with a life-long interest in jazz."

Bryan Bergner: Owner of Highlands Honey, and a former golf course superintendent of Westmoor Country Club.

Mary Anne Borowski-lutz: "I am a trained bereavement facilitator and have been facilitating support groups for over 20 years."

Debra Brehmer: Featured recently in Sunday's Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, for her exhibition called "Art Against the Odds: Wisconsin Prison Art Exhibition," Debra is a leader in bringing current art productions to the Milwaukee community. She is the owner and director of the Portrait Society Gallery and is an art historian who has curated numerous exhibitions and written about art for various publications for over 20 years.

Sue Bronson: A pioneer in mediation since 1983, Sue is a retired psychotherapist. She is an instructor of mediation courses at UWM and is the lead trainer for elder caring coordinators nationally and internationally.

Kimberly Burnett: Kim is a self-taught artist from Milwaukee. She's been making art since she was two and never stopped. Today she works mostly in oils and charcoal.

Barbara Collignon: "Learning French was the best thing I ever did since it led to two careers and many hours of pleasure and friendship."

Kari Foote: RYT-200 Yoga Alliance certified yoga instructor with training in integrative yoga, gentle and restorative yoga, yoga for cancer, and diverse ability yoga. She has seen first-hand the benefit of mindful movement as a powerful way to increase mobility, strength, flexibility, and mindfulness while reducing stress.

Joe Friedman: "Hi, my name is Joe. I grew up in Shorewood. In 2021, I graduated with a communications degree from Ithaca College. I am now working as a contractor."

Richard Gonzalez: Richard is a member of the Iroquois Confederation, Oneida Tribe of Wisconsin, and Turtle Clan. He is a seasoned and informed lecturer and consultant on the origin of Iroquoian thought influencing the U.S. Constitution as well as Indian Boarding Schools, as his mother and maternal grandparents were subjected to this travesty. He holds advanced degrees in education and administration.

Chuck Hagner: Chuck is the author of the American Birding Association Field Guide to Birds of Wisconsin (Scott & Nix, Nov. 2019) and two other books about birds and bird watching. He is the former editor-in-chief of BirdWatching Magazine and former staff writer and editor at Time-Life Books. Director of Bird City Wisconsin, his freelance clients include the World Bank, Scott & Nix, the Global Environment Facility, Princeton University Press, and others.

Anne Hamilton: Anne taught political science for 20 years at UW–Whitewater, but she is now turning her attention to more local issues. She currently serves as president of Lake Park Friends and is coordinating the Olmsted 200 celebration.

Greg Jenks: Greg retired from Franklin Public Schools in 2017 after 32 years as a school psychologist and has reinvented himself as a home brewer, amateur actor/singer and presenter on historical topics including those of his greatest passions: music and sports.

Carol Justin: Carol is a parent, grandparent and retired clinical social worker and family therapist. She worked in numerous social service settings and as a therapist in private practice for 27 years.

Janae Kakulis: Janae has been teaching water aerobics for 6 years and practicing Tai Chi for 4 years. She was certified in Tai Chi two years ago and enjoys teaching participants how to slow down in their lives.

Sue Kubiak: Sue served in leadership roles in sales and marketing in senior living for over 20 years. She helps guide older adults navigating the challenges of senior living options. As an advocate and educator for seniors, their families and community groups, Sue also volunteers for senior programs. She holds a B.S. in Social Welfare.

Mary Liner: As a Realtor for over 30 years, Mary enjoys helping sellers get the most money for their home and advising them on what will work best for them as they move on to their next living space.

Melissa Meier: Melissa has her master's degree in Gerontology and serves as Executive Director of Eastside Senior Services (ESS), a neighborhood outreach program serving the east side of Milwaukee and Shorewood.

Kate Morgan: Kate has over 20 years of experience in education, public engagement, and communications with a focus on freshwater and the Great Lakes. She currently serves as Senior Public Engagement Specialist for Milwaukee Metropolitan Sewerage District (MMSD) and works to develop partnerships and programs in support of MMSD's mission.

Sofron Nedilsky: Sofron is uniquely qualified to talk about Ukraine "yesterday and today." He was five when his family fled Ukraine in 1944. A Glendale resident since 1981, he served as Clerk of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin until retiring in 2006.

Diana Otterbacher: Diane is a retired United Methodist Pastor from Illinois, as well as a former social worker, teacher, journalist, and elected official. Currently volunteering with many local organizations, she finds teaching the Enneagram helps people to know themselves and others better.

Mimi (Michele) Oxman: She is a former MPS teacher, curriculum supervisor, and assistant principal. Since retiring in 2001, Mimi has spent time doing what she loves, needlework and dancing. She started teaching Zumba in 2008, and (before COVID) was teaching three classes a week at Alexian Village, the Shorewood Senior Center and Milwaukee Catholic Home.

Connie Popp: Connie has led meditation classes at Alverno College and taught Peace Studies at UWM. As Campus Minister at both colleges, she facilitated numerous retreats and prayer services. Her educational background includes a Master's Degree in Pastoral Ministry and a Doctorate in Education.

Rick Rocamora: A Power Systems Engineer at Cooper Industries for 41 years, Rick lived in Shanghai for 10 years and set up Cooper Power System's business in China. Rick and his wife Joan studied Chinese history and culture while in China.

Wendy Sostock: Wendy is a leader in painting with watercolor or acrylics. She has been invited to show her work regularly at the Art Bar and Cedarburg art shows. She has an astute eye that makes her an excellent instructor in helping her students to perceive their paintings with a positive, critical eye.

Roslyn Sampson: "I'm a daughter, sister, aunt, friend, newly retired Milwaukee Public School teacher with a strong belief in God's will and his way. I'm blessed to have both of my parents still alive, living close enough to spend time with them often."

Gary Strothmann: Gary refers to his post as director of guest experience at the Pabst Mansion as his "last gig before retirement." Previously, Gary has served up first-class hospitality at other Milwaukee landmarks such as the Boulevard Inn. At the Pabst Mansion, his efforts include helping to make it a primary stop for cruise-ship travelers.

Gail Thomas: Gail has taught writing classes at NSSF for ten years. She also has taught various English, journalism and writing classes at the high school and college levels.

Pam Treisman: Pam is a nursing PhD student. Her research focuses on promoting health and wellness for children and their families.

Bill Washabaugh: Bill is a professor of Anthropology, UWM, since 1974 with foci in linguistics of Creole societies & Deaf communities, music and politics in southern Spain and personal identity as represented in movies.

Nancy Weiss-McQuide: Nancy is a professional actor, choreographer, mime artist, dance teacher, writer, and speaker. She also has been a teaching artist for the Milwaukee Repertory Theater for 14 years, and a dance teacher at UWM for 15 years.

Mary Wood: Mary learned to knit as a teen many years ago and renewed her interest as she neared retirement. She loves the relaxing and meditative aspect of knitting.
