

Blessing Prayer given by Selwyn Stevens to share with all, info@jubileeresources.org

We ask in Your Holy Name, Jesus, that you bring to pass these blessings which we speak according to Your Word and Your will. Be glorified and praised in the manifestation of Your love toward us. Thank You, Jesus.

1. Let's pray a blessing on your CONCEPTION We bless the day of your conception. Welcome to this world in the womb. We bless your uniqueness. You are God's choice. Out of the hundreds of millions of possible combinations from your parent's DNA, God determined that you would be you because you were fearfully and wonderfully made. We bless the timing of your arrival here on earth. You were no accident. God wanted you here for this time and for His purpose and so He gave permission for your spirit to be sent to earth at exactly the right time regardless of the human circumstances. We bless the destiny that was pre-planned for your life. According to Eph. 1:3, before the foundation of the earth, you existed in the mind and heart of God. All the days of your life were ordained before one of them came to be. Psalm 139:16 May you discover the sheer joy of walking in the steps that God has ordered for your life. We bless your eternal home. The same Heavenly Father who sent your spirit to earth is waiting to welcome you back to himself one day. May your stay on earth include a rich personal relationship with Jesus Christ while He prepares a place in heaven for you. (John 14:2)

2. PREGNANCY We bless your pre-born days, when you were uniquely crafted and specifically designed for God's purpose. We bless the formation of your body, that God performed in secret while you waited to be released to this world. (Psalm 139:13-15) We bless your emotional life, that you may understand deep in your heart that God will always provide a safe place for you, a place of refuge on this earth from the forces that set themselves against you. May God's perfect love displace any fears in your life.

3. BIRTH We bless the day of your birth. May you know that your needs will always be met according to the supply of the One who sent you to this earth to accomplish His purpose through you. We bless your gender, for you were created to be a man or woman, according to God's design. We bless your birth order, in the family to which you were given. May the timing of your arrival and the relationships with family members be used by God to perfect you according to His will. We bless your mental growth, as you begin to process the world around you. May your ear gates and eye gates be guarded by those who care for you and keep you in their home. We bless your spiritual journey. May it begin with dedication to a faith community that follows Jesus Christ. May you be guarded and guided by human and angelic beings until you are old enough to make your own choices.

4. EARLY CHILDHOOD We bless your early childhood, that you may learn to trust everyone who exercises Godly authority in your life. We bless your play times, that your mind may learn and grow to your full potential. May you be kept safe at all times. We bless your mental development, that nothing would hinder the growth of your minds to its full potential. We bless the development of your will, that you may be shaped in wisdom and love by those in authority in your life. May you learn to make wise choices in every life decision. We bless your spiritual life, that you would understand and experience what it means to walk with God at a young age. We bless you family relationships, that you would discover and enjoy a sense of belonging in a family that loves you. May you be kept safe from accident and emotional injury and improper discipline. We bless your school experiences, that school will be a safe place for you to learn and grow. May school authorities recognize and encourage your gifts and talents. We bless your friendships. May you be guided to make wise choices in every relationship outside your family circle. May your guardian parents pray for you and raise you in the admonition of the Lord.

5. TEEN YEARS We bless your teen years, that you have what it takes to fulfil everything God has called you to do. As you apprentice for adulthood, may your unique talents and gifts be recognized and stimulated in preparation for your life's work. We bless your physical development, that you are content and happy in the body God has given you as it reaches maturity. May you enjoy excellent health. We bless your mental development, that you receive the necessary education and intellectual preparation for your life's work. May you appreciate both the process and outcome of learning. We bless you spiritually, that you may have personal encounters with the living God. May you experience consistent growth in your faith day by day. We bless you socially, that you may experience true friendships, a good reputation and a safe environment in which you felt loved and accepted for who you are. We bless your life preparation, that these years are truly an apprenticeship period for adulthood. May you always be mentored in character and in your life's calling. We bless you need to grow, that you may learn from your life experiences and experiment with your gifts and talents. May you never fear to accept new challenges and test the limits of your capabilities within the boundaries set by Godly authorities.

6 & 7. ADULTHOOD We bless your adult identity and your destiny in this world. May you discover and fulfil the purpose for which God sent you to this earth. May you meet and marry God's perfect choice as a life partner. We bless your relationships, that God would lead you to those who can mentor you, as well as to those who need to receive from what you have been given. May you never be without meaningful friendships. We bless your marriage. What God has joined together, may no one ever separate. We bless your children, that the generational blessing upon your family line would be passed on to them. May each child provide breadth and depth to your own life experience. May each one share your values in life and experience a personal walk with God. We bless the work of your hands, that your industry and labor will bring the abundance necessary to provide for your family and to sow into other's lives. We bless your finances, that you may never have to get by without God's supply. May you always discern and obey the requirements for financial blessing. May you live securely without need or fear or want. We bless your health, that you may physically prosper and not succumb to sickness. May you prosper physically even as your soul prospers. We bless your Christian witness, that you would carry with you the fragrance of Christ in all that you do. May your character and lifestyle be a witness to the truth of God's promises. May you have many opportunities to share your personal faith and bear much fruit as you continue to abide in the vine - Jesus. (3 John 2)

8. SENIOR YEARS We bless your senior years, that you may maintain a place of significance and purpose in this world. May you be confident in knowing that you are needed and wanted by those of us who follow after you. We bless your life's work. May you receive appropriate honor for your years of labor. May your contribution to the kingdom of God on this earth be recognized and blessed. We bless your health, that your strength will match the length of your days. (Deuteronomy 33:25) We bless your relationship with your children, that they may rise up and call you blessed. As you become less able to look after your own needs, may they be more available to care for you. We bless your life transition from working in the fields to sitting in the gates. May you be sought out for wisdom and counsel so that your hard earned insights will benefit many in the years and generations to come.
