

Mrs. Magillicutty's Kindness Guide

How to get started — Mobilizing Kindness Through Community

My dears,

Gather close, for kindness is a very delicate thing. It begins—always—with a friend, a small intention, and a willingness to make the world softer for someone else. Here is how you and your brave companions may join our mission of caring for the beloved pets of our unhoused neighbors.

Mrs. Magillicutty

Please know if you ever have a question you may call my person
Stephen he may be able to help you.
“He really does have a good heart” (925) 698-0377

1. Assemble Your Merry Band

Every fine adventure begins with friends. Gather your classmates, scouts, or neighbors and choose a Team Leader—the one who keeps lists tidy, minds the details, and laughs kindly.

2. A Quiet Surprise

Once your team is assembled, your Leader may quietly order your Mrs. Magillicutty Volunteer T-Shirts. Do keep this hush-hush. A surprise is twice as delightful when wrapped in silence.

3. Choose Your Recipe

Select one of our splendid dog biscuit or cat treat recipes. Even Sherlock approves, and he is terribly particular about these things.

4. Gather the Ingredients

One friend brings flour, another oats, another perhaps a carrot or two. Or you may visit a kindly grocer whose heart is generous.

5. Mix & Bake

Find a kitchen where hands can be brave and dough can become delicious. Stir with joy, bake with hope, and cool with patience—Sherlock insists on this part.

6. Pack with Love

Into each little bag place a dozen biscuits or a pawful of treats, along with a sticker, an ingredient sheet, and your group's proud name.

7. Count Your Treasures

Your Leader will tally your gifts and send word to us. We shall then connect you with those who need your kindness most.

8. Tell Your Tale

Oh, please send us photographs and stories—young bakers, brave deliverers, and of course volunteers in their marvelous shirts. Each tale becomes a lantern of hope for another child somewhere in the world.