

Epiphany Blessing for a Home

20 † C M B † 21

Matthew writes that when the magi saw the shining star stop overhead, they were filled with joy. “On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother” (Matt. 2:10-11). In the home, Christ is met in family and friends, in visitors and strangers. In the home, faith is shared, nurtured, and put into action. In the home, Christ is welcome.

Greeting

May peace be to this house and to all who enter here.

*By wisdom a house is built and through understanding it is established;
through knowledge its rooms are filled with rare and beautiful treasures. (Proverbs 24:3-4)*

Reading

As we prepare to ask God's blessing on this household, let us listen to the words of scripture.

*In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
He was in the beginning with God.
All things came into being through him,
and without him not one thing came into being,
and the life was the light of all people.
The Word became flesh and lived among us,
and we have seen his glory,
the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.
From his fullness we have all received,
grace upon grace. (John 1:1-4, 14, 16)*

Inscription

*Following an eastern European tradition, a visual blessing may be inscribed with white chalk above the main door. The numbers change with each new year. The three letters stand for the ancient Latin blessing Christe mansionem benedicat, which means “Christ, bless this house.”*

This inscription may be made with chalk or written on a sign and hung above the entrance:

20 † C M B † 21

Write the appropriate character while speaking the text.

“The magi of old followed the star of God's Son who came to dwell among us two thousand (20) and twenty-one (21) years ago (†). Christ bless this house (CMB) and remain with us throughout the year (†).”

Prayer of Blessing

O God, you revealed your Son to all people by the shining light of a star. We pray that you bless this home and all who live here with your gracious presence. May your love be our inspiration, your wisdom our guide, your truth our light, and your peace our benediction; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then everyone may walk from room to room, blessing the house with incense or by sprinkling with water, perhaps using a branch from the Christmas tree.
