Welcome to Zion!

Second Week of Christmas

Saturday, January 4, 2020

Sunday, January 5, 2020

Within the gospel reading's profound words lies the simple message that God is revealed in a human person. Though we may try to understand how the Word existed with God from the beginning of time, the wonder we celebrate at Christmas is that the Word continues to dwell among us.

Christ comes among us in the gathered assembly, the scriptures, the waters of new birth, and the bread and the wine. Through these ordinary gifts we receive the fullness of God's grace and truth.

Gathering Hymn	"Word of God, Come Down on Earth" (Hymn #510)
Hymn of the Day	"Of the Father's Love Begotten" (Hymn #295)
Offering Hymn	"What Child is This" (Hymn #296)
Communion Music	"Infant Holy, Infant Lowly" (Hymn #276)
Sending Hymn	"Good Christian Friends, Rejoice" (Hymn #288)

For our service music, we are continuing to use Holy Communion Setting 3, found on pages 138-146 in the cranberry hymnal, Evangelical Lutheran Worship.

May God bless those serving in worship this weekend:
Heidi Womack, assisting minister
Lois Stuber, greeter

Thank you to the Memorial Garden Committee for hosting Coffee Fellowship! We are blessed by your gift of hospitality.

Welcome to Worship at Zion!

We are so glad that you've joined us! There is a place for you here. Our Lord promises to meet us here as we hear his Word proclaimed, pray for the needs of the world, and receive Him in the Eucharist.

A Word About Holy Communion

Baptized Christians are welcome to receive Jesus in his body and blood. If, for reasons of health or conscience, you only choose to receive the bread or wine, please know that Jesus is fully present in each element. If you are not baptized, or have not yet received First Communion instruction, please come forward for a blessing.

As we enter this new year, we invite you to prayerfully consider how your passions, interests, and gifts intersect with God's vision here at Zion to "invite, equip, and serve our neighbors."
