Willing to Grow in 2021

Giving Time

Time is one of God's most precious gifts to us, as it cannot be saved or recovered. Because we have committed to membership in Zion's congregation, we are stakeholders in Zion's success. Our willingness to grow in giving more of our time ensures that we all share in the work of ministry.

I'm willing to give my time toward (check all that apply)

- Short-term tasks, projects, or events
- Office-type work
- Teams with a commitment of time and tasks, such as: _____

Giving Talent

Talent includes not only the gifts and abilities God has given, but the skills and activities that spark joy in a person's life. We are blessed with a talented congregation and community! Our willingness to grow in talent comes as we commit our skills and abilities to the mission and ministries of Zion in tangible ways.

Giving Treasure

Complete this section only once per household/family

So many have given financially toward Zion's success in mission and ministry over the last year. As fellow members of the body of Christ, our willingness to grow in 2021 comes as we commit to giving and increase our giving, as our faith and finances allow.

This giving commitment speaks for  my spouse  my children

I/we commit to giving $_____ each  week  month  year

This is an increase in the amount of my/our giving.

I/we would like to set up automatic online giving. Please call me/us.

Life changes happen and you may need to adjust your commitments accordingly. This is good, healthy management of what God gives us.

Thank you for prayerfully considering your commitment to Zion, its mission, and ministry in 2021! We appreciate your willingness to grow with us in giving to Zion and giving back to God this year!
