

Who is a McKenzie Friend?

A McKenzie Friend is someone who provides guidance and support during family court cases in the UK.

Reliable support

You can rely on us at every stage of your case. We work on time, professionally, and transparently, always protecting your sense of safety.

Affordable support

We provide full support at a fraction of the cost of traditional law firms. We handle cases effectively, without unnecessary expenses.

Protection of Your Rights

We make sure your position is clearly presented and properly understood. We help protect your rights and interests — both in your documents and in the courtroom.

Effectiveness

We do not represent clients as solicitors, but we help you prepare documents, organise evidence, and understand the procedures so you can appear in court with confidence.

Our priority

We make sure you understand your options and know which steps are worth taking — clearly, specifically, and without unnecessary legal jargon. Our priority is your sense of safety and the reassurance that you are not facing this alone.
