

Double Life

Words & Music
By Johnny Reed

I'm living a double life, I'm living life through another

I'm living a double life, through a rising sun, my wonderful son

When I look in his eyes, I see life like I knew before

My memories are born again, it happens every time I see him run to me

We fly like red tailed hawks soaring high and circling 'round

And everyone can see that we were meant to fly together

Yeah we can fly together

Oou, oou, oou, oou, oou, oou, oou

Oou, oou, oou, oou, oou, oou, oou

You know sometimes we, we may fall down

But if we do, we're gonna catch each other

We're flying wing in wing, in wing, in wing

I couldn't imagine anything better, a special double life

He brightens up the world, it doesn't matter what we do

When I hear things he says, I hear faith in the world around us
It renews my love of life, and it happens every time I see him run to me

We fly like red tailed hawks soaring high and circling 'round

And everyone can see that we were meant to fly together

Flying wing in wing, wing in wing, wing in wing

Oou, oou, oou, oou, oou, oou, oou

Oou, oou, oou, oou, oou, oou, oou

We keep flying higher, and higher

We're flying wing in wing
