Vote Early

To avoid mail delays or last minute mishaps use a dropbox or vote early in person: Early in-person voting is available at the San Luis Obispo Elections Office, 1050 Monterey Street, San Luis Obispo, Room D120 starting October 5; and in North County at the Atascadero County Office, upstairs in the Atascadero Library at 6565 Capistrano, Atascadero starting October 26.

Understand What's on the Ballot

For straightforward, independent information about California's statewide propositions:

Yard Signs

VOTE EARLY

Community yard signs are almost here!

THANK YOU, ESTERO BAY!

You helped make our July 4th "250 Years of No Kings" signs a community favorite across Estero Bay and SLO County.

CELEBRATE OUR DEMOCRACY

Our new patriotic 18-by-24-inch vertical sign encourages neighbors to make their voices heard. It features key voting dates and directs people to the Estero Bay website for national and local election information and resources.

Expected in early October, around the time California mail ballots arrive.

Suggested donation: $15
Your support is greatly appreciated.

Resistance & the Arts

Special Screening: "Lightworkers"

Sunday, October 18
1:00 pm
Palm Theater
817 Palm Street, San Luis Obispo
Tickets: $10 at the door

Here's another chance to see the inspiring "LIGHTWORKERS" documentary!

"Lightworkers" is endorsed by INDIVISIBLE co-founder Ezra Levin, who encourages everyone to see it via Zoom. This one-time only we'll have the director Bobby Roth here in person for a Q & A session afterwards.

The October 18 film presentation dovetails nicely with the No Kings Vote Early events of the day before, providing people with an uplifting, supportive, and encouraging boost to get out the vote on November 3.

Candidate Forums
