No Kings Day: Five Local Events!

Editor's Note
We're Making History

The No Kings protest is slated to be the biggest single day resistance in U.S. history. Our nation is on the knife-edge of authoritarianism, and only peaceful mass protest can effectively oppose it. But we MUST show up en masse. Please bring others with you - especially those who haven't been before. Professor, scholar and commentator Robert Reich underscores the importance in this brief VIDEO.

A note on registration: Registration is not required to attend No Kings events, but it helps us plan for the crowd and entitles you email updates.

Weekly To-Dos

- Email your Members of Congress now and tell them not to give Trump more funds to prolong this illegal war. Demand they conduct oversight, continue to force votes on War Powers Resolutions, oppose the war publicly, and absolutely refuse to give it another penny.
- Follow up with a phone call. Regardless of party, we have to let every Member of Congress know that their constituents don't want to pay for Trump's wholly unnecessary carnage, don't want to send more Americans to die or be injured, and will remember how they vote. Call your senators and then call your representative.
- Attend a No Kings protest on March 28. No Kings means no lawless imperial wars. If you oppose this war, show up and make your voice heard this weekend. Then ask three friends to join you.
- Help make this a world-historic day of protest by sharing our No Kings, No War video, far and wide on your social platforms, among loved ones, with folks you know from the movement. Here are links to the video on Bluesky, Instagram, Facebook, Threads, and Substack.
