A Catholic Psychology Practice in Northern Virginia
Is looking for an additional Catholic minded psychologist to join the practice As either a postdoctoral resident, a licensed clinical psychologist, or a master's level licensed therapist

Fountain of life clinicians seek to build up individuals (adolescent and adult), couples, and families so that they can realize and use their God-given abilities to their fullest. We accomplish this by:

1. Identifying a person's strengths and weaknesses so they can better themselves and their relationships,
2. Helping people heal their emotional life so they can reach their highest potential,
3. Strengthening people's psychological health so they can grow,
4. Helping people integrate the truth about themselves, others, and creation into their lives in a practical way,
5. Conducting therapy and psychological assessments.

The fully furnished office includes 4 inner offices, a work room, and a waiting room.

Openings begin as early as April 1, 2022 for either part-time or full-time work
