CONNECTING TO YOUR SIGILS

Each sigil has been created for with the intention of each element and it's association. They are grouped below by Earth & Water - Fire & Air because of their natural flow. Earth and Water mix well together as do Fire & Air. The elements work for and with each other so that they can then work for and with you!

Each sigil is activated by myself & Ryan during the creation process. They are stand alone, which means you don't have to do anything to them for them to work for you. But adding your own energy by choosing to activate or charge them with your added intentions is a great way to connect further to them, your use of them and your specific intention if you choose to make one. You can charge them by adding to your candle or burning it (in a fire safe vessel) - great for the Fire sigil. Submerging it in water - especially useful for the Water sigil. Taking the Air sigil out on a windy day or breathing deeply upon it. Burying the Earth sigil within the ground or in a beloved plant spirit within your home.

Let your imagination and own personal gnosis can guide you or utilize some of the above suggestions for activation and charging.
