Change is Inevitable

Every season brings new challenges, fresh opportunities, and voices that deserve to be heard. Whether we're adapting to shifts in the community or rethinking the way we deliver services, staying flexible allows us to stay mission-driven in innovative ways. That's why we're excited to share that our website has a brand new look—a reflection of our continued growth and the evolving story we're telling. It's designed to make it easier for you to connect with our mission, explore our programs, and get involved.

We invite you to explore the new site, share it with others, and grow with us as we continue shaping a future that meets our community's needs with heart, vision, and action.

With a grateful heart,

Joshua Rosales

Volunteer Spotlight

Mark FLOres

Volunteer and Donor

Mark Flores, owner of Hey Roofman, has been an incredible supporter and true friend to Break-Thru TN. His generosity extends far beyond his role as a successful roofing professional serving all of Middle Tennessee. Mark has played a vital part in our backpack giveaways, providing financial support to ensure children start the school year prepared. He has helped secure essential items for those experiencing homelessness and has given an abundance of support in countless ways, stepping in with both resources and compassion.

Whether he's rolling up his sleeves to volunteer at school field days or quietly meeting needs behind the scenes, Mark embodies the spirit of service and community. We are profoundly grateful for his heart, his hands-on help, and his unwavering commitment to making a difference.

Thanks Mark!

SCHOOL IS ALMOST OUT FOR THE SUMMER, BUT IT IS ALREADY TIME TO THINK ABOUT PREPARING FOR THE 2025-2026 SCHOOL YEAR

Time moves quickly and before we know it, the future becomes the present. That's why preparation is so important—we can't afford to wait until the need is urgent to start planning.

Will you help us make this summer's
Back-to-School Backpack Giveaway a success?

Each year, students light up with joy as they pick out the backpack of their choice—and all the supplies they need to start the school year with confidence. Last year we distributed 1500 backpacks and due to demand, this year our goal is to give away 2500 backpacks.

With a gift of just $10, you can bring a big smile to a young student's face and help them feel prepared and proud on their first day.

Would you consider supporting one or more students this year?
Every donation makes a difference—and it's always tax deductible.
Let's make this school year brighter together!
