Order of Worship Service

Call to Worship: Christ himself carried our sins in his body to the cross, so that we might die to sin and live for righteousness. It is by his wounds that you have been healed. 1 Peter 2:24 (GNT)

Prayer

Scripture: Matthew 27:54; Mark 15:39; Luke 23:47 (KJV)

Leader: 54. Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

People: 39. And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

All Together: 47. Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. Amen.

“THE DOXOLOGY”

“Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above ye heav’n-ly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.”—Amen

Morning Hymn

"There Is a Fountain"

1. There is a fountain filled with blood Drawn from Immanuel's veins; And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains: Lose all their guilty stains,
Lose all their guilty stains; And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains.
2. The dying thief rejoiced to see That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins away:
Wash all my sins away, Wash all my sins away;
And there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins away.
3. Dear dying Lamb, Thy precious blood Shall never lose its power, Till all the ransomed ones of God
Be saved, to sin no more: Be saved, to sin no more,
Be saved, to sin no more; Till all the ransomed ones of God,
Be saved to sin no more.
4. E'er since by faith I saw the stream Thy flowing wounds supply, Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die: And shall be till I die,
And shall be till I die; Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

A Message from the Media Ministry

What would you do...?

If you received an email like this:

U.S. Dept. of Treasury – You are eligible to receive $1678 in stimulus payments over the next 12 weeks. To apply, please reply to this email.

Sounds enticing, doesn't it. Don't Do It!

Do Not click Reply! Let me tell you why.

This is what's called a Phishing Scam!

Scammers use this method to gain access to and/or download malicious malware to your computer or device.

So, What should I do...?

What you should do is follow the KYC method & Delete that email.

KYC stands for Know Your Customer.

Understand, no government agency is going to have you reply to them via email. They may email you to inform you of something, but they will never have you reply to them or ask for your credentials.

Also, government agencies will ALWAYS contact you via mail.

I took it a step further to review where the email was coming from & found that it was coming from a "@usa.com" email domain and the Reply to email domain was "@email.com". Red Flags all over the place!

So, in conclusion, if you don't know the customer, don't click Reply. Remember, if it doesn't make sense, stay on the defense and use your common sense!

Congregational Hymn

"The Old Rugged Cross"

1. On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
the emblem of suffering and shame;
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.
2. O that old rugged cross, so despised by the world,
Has a wondrous attraction for me;
For the dear Lamb of God left his glory above
To bear it to dark Calvary.

Refrain:

*So I'll cherish the old rugged cross,
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
And exchange it some day for a crown.*

3. In that old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
A wondrous beauty I see,
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
To pardon and sanctify me.
4. To that old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear;
Then he'll call me some day to my home far away,
Where his glory forever I'll share. [Refrain]
