The ER-A411 is ideal for retailers looking for a standalone cashregister with special branch features. With the easy to read backlit customer display a clear view of purchase and price information can be rotated to the perfect viewing angle. By the pop-up customer display scrolling messages like special offer promotions can be shown. Combined with the sophisticated promotion function it maximises sales opportunities. Sales can be totaled with accuracy and speed for items being purchased by inputting the article code manually or scan in the EAN product code code. The SD card slot can be used to back up daily sales and electronic journal data, which can be managed on a computer via Excel or other spreadsheet applications.
