
LEADERSHIP & INNOVATION LAB

JULY 2026 CLASSIFIEDS

Organization: SafeFur

Information: Millions of stray animals face harsh winters while shelters struggle with overcrowding. SafeFur is an autonomous, insulated pre-intake shelter that provides food, water, warmth, and remote monitoring, allowing organizations to safely house and track animals before rescue. By reducing pressure on shelters and improving rescue efficiency, SafeFur helps animal welfare organizations care for more animals with the resources they already have. SafeFur, a student-led company, is looking to fill the following positions: Head of Product Development, Head of Animal Welfare and Education, Lead Engineer, Lead Programmer, Research & Testing Lead, Finance Lead, Outreach Lead, Marketing Lead, Social Media Lead, Events Lead, Manufacturing Coordinator, Merchandise & Sales Coordinator, Deployment & Logistics Coordinator, Grant Coordinator, Education Coordinator, and Shelter Relations Coordinator. No experience necessary for most positions. Top positions come with the possibility of hiring your own team!

Deadline: ASAP

Organization: FEMME

Information: FEMME is a real statistics based app that trains women to be confident by using timed repetition and AI coaching. Unlike current “self-defense” solutions that are often reactive, our mission is to coach women on red-flag scenario detection and how to look unapproachable before anything happens. Join us on FEMME to scale the world’s first proactive app for women and empower the next generation of secure females. FEMME is looking for young women to fill the following positions: Coder (App & Web), Designer (App & Web), Creative Director, App Element Animator, Cinematographer, Clothing Designer (Hoodies), Project Manager, and Sourcing Agent (China).

Deadline: July 31, 2026

Contact info: Email sheisntsorry@gmail.com with a copy of your resume and a list of positions you're interested in.

Organization: Happy Harmonies

Information: We are looking for young musicians in the UK to join a community music project that performs for elderly residents in care homes. Many elderly people are not visited often, so our aim is to use music to make them smile, feel remembered, and bring comfort through familiar songs from their time. This project is completely free for care homes. Alongside this, we may perform at small concerts, gigs, and recitals to raise money for transport, sheet music, equipment, and website costs, so the project can continue and expand. We need musicians who can perform confidently, work as a team, and commit to helping others through music. This is a chance to gain performance experience, build confidence, support the elderly community, and be part of something meaningful. Happy Harmonies is looking to fill the following positions: Vice-President, Project Leader, Head of Social Media, Website Manager, Recruitment Manager, Music Director, Care Home Liaison, Fundraising Manager, and Performers.

Organization: International Secondary Student Economics Summit

Information: Are you interested in economics, finance, or other related fields? Do you want to showcase your original research to top-tier university professors and industry leaders?

This global initiative aims to bridge the gap in economics education, research, and professional connections for middle and high school students. Our network has a truly global reach, with past participants joining from the US, China, Hong Kong, New Zealand, and beyond. Our alumni boast incredible college matriculation stats, frequently leveraging this elite research and leadership experience to secure admission into the world's most selective universities. This year's prompt is "the Economics of War." Interested in participating? Submit a 10-minute video of yourself presenting original research on this year's prompt, accompanied by a PowerPoint/Google Slides (or alternatives) presentation. Every participant receives direct, personalized feedback from our network. The top 10–11 presenters globally will be selected to present at our flagship live events. Also looking for event organizers.

Organization: Melodii

Information: This project is a student-led initiative focused on making music more accessible and understandable, especially for elders in local communities and younger kids who are just starting to explore music. The goal is to start with small, in-person workshops (like in libraries📖or community spaces👤), where we introduce music in a really simple and interactive way. At the same time, we're also working toward building a small website🌐that helps guide people through learning and creating their own music. This is still at an early stage, so joining means you'll be helping build something from the ground up!!! It's flexible, collaborative, and a good opportunity to take on leadership roles or try something new!!!!!!💖This non-profit organization's name is "Melodii." The name is derived from the word "melody," which refers to a sequence of musical notes that are perceived as a single entity. The addition of the double "i" at the end represents inclusivity and interactivity.

Information: The National Coalition Against Censorship and the New York Film Academy are excited to present the 22nd annual Youth Free Expression Film Contest. This year, NCAC is calling on young filmmakers to create short documentary films that explore the theme: Documenting our Democracy! Free Expression means the right to reveal important truths, and a documentary is an invaluable tool that can empower anyone with as little as a cell phone to do just that. The theme “Documenting our Democracy” is about more than just elections and voting. “Democracy” is the process of creating a community and working together to solve shared problems. When choosing a subject for your film, think about what makes where you live unique; what’s one thing people should know about your town or city? What might surprise them about it? Who are the people who embody it?
