STUDENT-RUN OPPORTUNITIES

Organization: One Shot, One Story
Information: After our team's personal experiences with two mall shootings, Code Red school lockdowns, and several conversations with other survivors and families impacted by gun violence, One Shot, One Story was born to turn an epidemic disproportionately affecting youth into a youth-led movement. One Shot, One Story is a registered 501(c)(3) youth-led nonprofit mobilizing youth to confront gun violence through storytelling and action. The organization is looking for young leaders to start local chapters.

Organization: Anti-Crastination
Information: We're opening a small number of leadership positions for Anti-Crastination, a student-created card game that uses the motivational mechanics of games to help people tackle real-life tasks and procrastination. The first physical deck is already complete, with original characters, cards, and game mechanics. A playable online version is also live. We're now building Anti-Crastination's first cross-school student leadership team and chapter network and inviting students from different schools to join the Anti-Crastination Founding Team. This is an opportunity to take on a defined leadership role, lead your own initiatives, and help bring an existing project to more students and schools. Founding Team members and their contributions will also be featured on the Anti-Crastination website. The roles are designed to fit around a busy student schedule. There are no weekly meetings, and involvement is flexible, with only occasional projects or activities throughout the year. If you're interested, explore the game and try the online version at anti-crastination.com, then fill out the short application below.

Organization: Happy Harmonies
Information: We are looking for young musicians in the UK to join a community music project that performs for elderly residents in care homes. Many elderly people are not visited often, so our aim is to use music to make them smile, feel remembered, and bring comfort through familiar songs from their time. This project is completely free for care homes. Alongside this, we may perform at small concerts, gigs, and recitals to raise money for transport, sheet music, equipment, and website costs, so the project can continue and expand. We need musicians who can perform confidently, work as a team, and commit to helping others through music. This is a chance to gain performance experience, build confidence, support the elderly community, and be part of something meaningful. Happy Harmonies is looking to fill the following positions: Vice-President, Project Leader, Head of Social Media, Website Manager, Recruitment Manager, Music Director, Care Home Liaison, Fundraising Manager, and Performers.

Deadline: None
Contact info: Website

Organization: Melodii
Information: This project is a student-led initiative focused on making music more accessible and understandable, especially for elders in local communities and younger kids who are just starting to explore music. The goal is to start with small, in-person workshops (like in libraries📚 or community spaces🤹), where we introduce music in a really simple and interactive way. At the same time, we're also working toward building a small website👨‍💻 that helps guide people through learning and creating their own music. This is still at an early stage, so joining means you'll be helping build something from the ground up!!! It's flexible, collaborative, and a good opportunity to take on leadership roles or try something new!!!!!!
