

Individual Training Session

One on one personalized training to tackle specific behaviors

$175

Private Training Packages

Some behavioral issues require multiple sessions to identify & address the issue effectively. Over the course of several weeks, with personalized coaching for you using proven positive training methods, we set your dog up for lifelong success & compliance. It takes time & consistency to rewire that canine brain.

4 Sessions @$150 $600

10 Sessions @$125ea $1,250

Exercise & Socialization

Does your dog need more exercise? We got your back. Experienced handlers will take your furry family member for a focused on-leash session, exposing them to different environments, reinforcing good manners in a fun setting. Great for those times when your schedule is just too hectic to handle a focused outing with your pooch.

One Hour Socialization & Training $150

In Home Pet Sitting

Take a vacation knowing your pets are safe at home with reliable, loving, experienced people who will treat your pets like family. Does your dog require medication? Insulin? Are they elderly and set in their ways? Do they get stressed in a boarding environment? In addition to being an experienced behavioral trainer, I am Pet First Aid and CPR certified, and have experience as a vet tech. With decades of dealing with medically & behaviorally challenged dogs, I will come to your home & love them like my own. Your pets are never left alone for more than 3 hours during the day, and will enjoy their regular routine so you can relax & enjoy your time away. Services include daily walks, play, feeding, medication (including injections & special needs care), and lots of love.
