ABOUT SLATE VALLEY TRAILS

Slate Valley Trails (SVT) is a volunteer community group founded in 2015.

SVT's mission is to build, maintain and promote foot and bicycle trails in the Slate Valley region of southwestern Vermont.

Goals are:

- to build community among local individuals, organizations and businesses
- support the local economy by promoting the region as a place to visit with improved access to trails, and
- encourage the positive health benefits of being active outdoors.

Slate Valley Trails invites you to get out on your bike or on foot and explore the following trails.

◆ Endless Brook Trails

Over seven miles of multi-use trails professionally built and designed for mountain biking in Poultney with a view of Lake St. Catherine!

◆ Delaney Woods Trails

Three and a half miles of multi-use trail built by professionals and volunteers in the town of Wells that meanders through easy to moderate terrain.

◆ Poultney River & Rail Trail

A pleasant 3.4 mile multi-use flat trail around the village of Poultney.

◆ Castleton University Trails

Wooded multi-use trails offering 1.9 miles of gentle terrain for the beginner trail rider or those looking for a easy walk.

◆ Howe Hill Trails

Three miles of trails that ascends through open forest. Nice overlook with view of main street Poultney. (Hiking Only)

The Poultney Area Gravel Ride Network

Sixteen bicycling loop rides of various difficulty, primarily on dirt and gravel roads, starting and ending in Poultney. Visit the SVT website for information and maps.
