District 37

Proudly Serving Southern Wake County!

May 13, 2025

Thank you for reading my newsletter for legislative updates and District 37 news.

I hope all of the mothers had a joyful and relaxing Mother's Day last Sunday! And, happy Military Appreciation Month to all of our military families. As a military spouse myself, I know first-hand the sacrifices of the military family. We appreciate you!

This weekend, I also enjoyed celebrating my son Cole's 15th birthday. It was a great weekend filled with family; I hope your weekend was as well!

Last week was "Crossover Week" at the General Assembly, which is the date when all eligible bills must receive a favorable vote in one chamber in order to crossover to the other chamber. You can probably imagine the long and late hours that come with the crossover deadline. Good news is we were able to pass out of the House good bills for the people of NC that I hope will be heard in the Senate. I outlined many of those bills below.

This week the House will present its budget plan to the public. I am very eager to publish this excellent budget, as we have been working very hard over the last several months to craft a solid budget plan for North Carolina.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve!

Rep. Pare's Bill HB 156 "Increase Access for Small Employers/Insurance" Passes the House

Rep. Paré's bill HB 156 "Increase Access for Small Employers/Insurance" passed the House. This bill passed the House near unanimous last session, What this bill does is reduce the employee threshold for level-funded plans from twelve to five. These health insurance plans are popular among small businesses because they provide an affordable way for small businesses to provide health insurance to their employees.

Forty-six states in the nation have level-funded plans, and only three of those states have an employee threshold above five; North Carolina is one of them and the only state in the southeast above five. This is a good bill for small business in North Carolina and to increase access to health insurance for the people of NC. An important note - the passage of this bill could help insure more people through their employer who are now receiving coverage through Medicaid expansion.

Rep. Pare's bill HB94 "Disabled Veteran Homestead Exclusion Prequalification" Passes the House

Rep. Pare's bill HB94 "Disabled Veteran Homestead Exclusion Prequalification" passed the House. This bill will help streamline the process for disabled veterans to apply for the property tax homestead exclusion they are entitled to, and also give lenders the ability to include the benefit in payment calculations, possibly enabling disabled veterans with greater buying power.

Rep. Pare's Bill HB 56 "Publish Central Office Employment Information" Passes the House

Last week the House passed HB 56, "Publish Central Office Employment Information". You asked for this bill, and I delivered.

This bill requires public school district central offices to publish on their website the compensation information for all central office employees. This bill is a good government bill and a taxpayer transparency bill, and I am very pleased that it passed the House.

Rep. Paré's HB 896 "Jesse's Law" Passes the House

Rep. Paré introduced HB 896 "Jesse's Law" which is a bill to ensure that individuals involved in child custody proceedings receive the proper training. The bill aims to better protect children and survivors of abuse within the family court system in North Carolina. The bill is named after a 3-year-old boy who was murdered by his father in 2012 in retaliation for the boy's mother seeking a divorce. The bill passed the House with bipartisan support.
