

ADAM C MARTIN

Singer, songwriter Adam C. Martin, is a decorated U.S. Army combat veteran on a mission to revive southern rock music while giving back to the veteran community. A self-taught musician, Adam brings a unique sound and story to today's music scene.

Adam is able to blend Southern Rock, Outlaw Country, and hint of Blues into a style that is reminiscent of all those old vinyl records we still love to listen to. His gift for channeling raw emotion into lyrics and energetic performances provide listeners and audiences alike with a glimpse of the grit, determination, and passion that comes from being a proud southern American.

With his band, Blackbird Anthem, Adam has released an EP, two singles, and most recently, their first full-length album, "Southern Ground. His music is available across multiple digital music platforms such as iTunes, Amazon, Spotify, and heard on many internet radio stations.

Adam & Blackbird Anthem have performed across the United States at venues and festivals including: CountryFlo Music Fest, Runaway Country Music Fest, Texas Frog Fest, Firehouse Saloon (Houston, TX), Orlando House of Blues, Coyotes Saloon (Augusta, GA), Gallopin Goose (Coolidge, AZ), Mandalay Bay (Las Vegas), Lion's Den (Pinetop, AZ), Texas Aggie VetFest, Sebring International Raceway, and stages in Daytona Beach FL, Seattle & Spokane WA, Idaho, and Montana.

Contact:

Adam C. Martin (ASCAP)

info@blackbirdanthem.com

Southern Ground
(2018)

Tonight We Ride
(2017)

22 (2017)

Stories I've Never
Told (2016)