

Chairmans Report

Once again, the Geraldton Combined Equestrian Club ran the three day Show jumping Classic on the 7th 8th and 9th July. This event has been running for around twenty-seven years and after a slight slump over the last few years due mainly to Covid, Fuel prices and several riders competing in the eastern states, this year saw the fixture right back where it always has been with around 190 horses and 120 riders competing. The club offered competitors $25,000 in prize money and trophies. We are so blessed to have such amazing sponsors who support the show each year with our major sponsors this year being Jumping WA and Wendy Reid of The Dog Shed who coincidentally won her own class on Sunday afternoon.

The lead up to the fixture saw welcome rain over several days but cleared before the show leaving three beautiful sunny days and perfect conditions for jumping.

It is always pleasing to see young riders step up to the bigger classes and this year was no exception with several of our local riders competing and doing well in the main ring, but a really impressive young rider who caught my eye was Saachi Travers riding a small team and taking out the bronze and silver series classes and topping that with a win in the young riders qualifier. Many of our members placed well over the three days with lots of young riders coming along nicely, of course Jodi, Hannah and Casey were well represented in the presentation line up with the following younger riders also acquitting themselves well enough to gain wins and good placings, some in the big kids (main) ring, Jess, Heidi, Saijsh, Ryleigh, Amelia, Isobell, Chloe, Scarlett, Alice, Ashley, Zoe, Libbi. Congratulations to you all you make me personally proud that GCEC can help produce many riders doing well and improving over the years.

It was pleasing to have such experienced competitors doing well at the Classic namely Caitlin Bolger, Rick Dabner, Ben Wilson Nell Henry, Steph Tucker, Chad and Beck Donovan, Spook March, Mike Bennet, Bridget Kelly, Shane Giblett, Casey Gill, Wendy Reid, Sophie Stott, Georgie Siciliano, Chelsie Whittington, Paris Endersby, with many more great riders making the three days such a successful spectacle.

Two enterprising young ladies Maddi March and Lahni Godenzie continued to operate the Doggy day care making sure the canine visitors were well exercised and looked after then making a donating of part of their proceeds to the club.
Thank you, girls.

As usual GCEC put on a Saturday night dinner with this year offering a free meal to riders. This was really special as two of our new members Jodie and Casey Criddle who run C and J horse breaking, education and training, cooked two beautifully cooked sheep on a spit which was served to over ninety appreciative diners with the main meal including soup and sweets beautifully prepared by Linda Ralph. A massive thank you to all of those who made this evening so special.

We are so fortunate to have an amazing SJ committee with other members of our club who work for months prior to the show during and after, with great sponsors, we are able to run a wonderful event each year. So, thank you to you all, especially the riders who make the trip up to Geraldton each year to make the event the success that it is.
