

John

Physical: 33yo Male

Vocal: Pop/Rock Tenor (to A5)

John is King's older brother, who plays guitar in the band.

He dreams of being the one in the spotlight and resents his brother's success and he has a serious drug and alcohol problem.

Coerced by his conniving girlfriend Connie, he plots to disrupt the weekend and discovers King is dying. When he is unable to stop Connie from leaking the news to the press, he repents and leaves.

He returns for King's funeral and receives an amazing gift.

Connie

Physical: 25yo Female

Vocal: Pop/Rock Alto-Metso

Connie is a scheming, lying, power-dater, who regularly leaks tasty gossip about her partners to the tabloid press.

She has come to the party with John, in order to dig up dirt on King but the friends are far too wholesome for her liking. So she pushes John into helping her cause trouble in order to create a story.

In the midst of the turmoil, she discovers the news of King's death and realizes she has the biggest exclusive of the decade. Now she needs to turn it into cash!

Cal

Physical: 21yo Male

Vocal: Pop/R&B High Baritone/Tenor

Cal is B's younger cousin & has grown up around the group of older friends.

Although he has become Benny's wingman, he instantly falls for Stef whom he hasn't seen for years.

Unfortunately, he doesn't have the confidence of his mentor when it comes to women and he is easily manipulated into ruining it.

Will he realize his mistake or lose the love of his life?

Stef

Physical: 19yo Female

Vocal: Pop/Rock/R&B Alto-Metso

Stef is King's and John's little sister and is just a great chick.

She is a painter and graphic artist, who is confident and cute, and extremely popular (particularly with men).

Despite her many offers, she hasn't dated much and falls totally for Cal the second she sees him.

She becomes a victim of Connie's plotting and in the end realizes that the love she thought she'd found was just a dream.

She decides that B is right – men are idiots!
