Consent for Electronic Communication: COVID-19 Response

With the Advent of COVID-19, It may become useful during the course of treatment to communicate by email or other electronic methods of communication. Be informed that these methods, in their typical form, are not confidential means of communication. If you use these methods to communicate with New Horizons Counseling, LLC, there is a reasonable chance that a third party may be able to intercept or eavesdrop on those messages. The kinds of parties that may intercept these messages include, but are not limited to:

- People in your home or other environments who can access your phone, computer, or other devices that you use to read and write messages;
- Your employer, if you use your work email to communicate with me;
- Third parties on the Internet

New Horizons Counseling, LLC uses an encrypted email program to protect your information. Despite the best safeguards, there are always risks with electronic communication. If having considered the risks, you consent to using electronic communication methods, please sign below and provide the email you prefer for New Horizons Counseling, LLC to use.
