

PocketChange

PocketChange is Nia's effort to reach individuals in the comfort of their homes without fear of degradation or insecurities of lack of knowledge. PocketChange is a lively, unique and practical 30 minute program targeted at educating underserved populations. The show provides information about common everyday money matters in terms everyone can understand. Each week viewers will learn and explore the interesting world of managing money, getting out of debt, creating a budget, choosing a mortgage, choosing investment vehicles and much, much more....
