

“OPTIONAL” ANCHORAGE package to include a visit to Jon & Jona Van Zyle’s home and studio; a visit and meet the grandson of the Father of the Iditarod, Robert Redington; ride around the track on a summer sled pulled by Iditarod dogs in training and cuddle with the puppies; visit Alaska Wildberry Products where you will find the Willy Wonka Chocolate Factory Fountain; and visit quilt shops in the Anchorage area. (Additional cost- TBA)

Our Bobbin Hood Quilting cruises include your cruise base fare, all taxes and port fees, prepaid gratuities, round-trip transfers between airport/ship and ship/airport, meals onboard the ship (excluding specialty dining), use of one of our Brother sewing machines, irons, ironing and cutting stations on board, tote bag, notions and goodies, games and prizes. Fresh cookies, and coffee every day! AND! You’ll receive our signature SWAG BAG – full of all sorts of goodies and a couple of quilting kits! Also! Receive extra onboard credit for being one of our past quilting cruisers!

I always recommend purchasing travel protection insurance because “life happens”. I recommend Allianz Travel Protection Insurance and will provide a quote for you upon request.
