IN THE MATTER OF GLENN ANTONY ARMSTRONG
AND IN THE MATTER OF THE INSOLVENCY ACT 1986

BETWEEN

OFFICIAL RECEIVER

Applicant

And

GLENN ANTONY ARMSTRONG

Respondent

ORDER

UPON THE TRIAL of the Official Receiver's application issued on 27 February 2022 for the making of a Bankruptcy Restrictions Order against the Respondent Glenn Antony Armstrong

AND UPON HEARING Miss Lucy Wilson-Barnes of Counsel for the Applicant and the Respondent in person

AND UPON THE COURT having made an Interim Bankruptcy Restrictions Order against the Respondent on 12 August 2022

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The Court hereby makes a Bankruptcy Restrictions Order against the Respondent Glenn Antony Armstrong pursuant to section 281A and Schedule 4 of the Insolvency Act 1986, which order shall cease to have effect at the end of 7 March 2036.
2. There be no order as to costs.

NOTES TO THE RESPONDENT

1. The Order subjects you to certain restrictions whilst it is in force.
2. The Restrictions to which you are subject under this Order include (but are not Limited to) the following:
  - (a) You must not obtain credit of the prescribed amount or more (as at January 2006 the prescribed amount was £500), either alone or with another person, from anyone without first informing that person that you are subject to a bankruptcy restrictions order (section 360 Insolvency Act 1986);
  - (b) You must not carry on business (directly or indirectly) in a different name from that in which you were made bankrupt without telling all those with whom you do business the name in which you were made bankrupt (section 360 Insolvency Act 1986);
  - (c) You must not act as a director of a company or (directly or indirectly) take part or be concerned in its promotion, formation or management, or act as a member of a limited liability partnership or (directly or indirectly) take part or be concerned in its promotion, formation or management, unless you are granted permission by the Court (section 11 Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986; Limited Liability Partnerships Regulations 2001). If you act in breach of this prohibition you commit a criminal offence and will also be personally responsible for any of the debts of the company or limited liability partnership in question.
  - (d) You must not act as an insolvency practitioner (sections 389 and 390 Insolvency Act 1986) nor as a receiver or manager of the property of a company (section 31 Insolvency Act 1986).

3. If you act in breach of any of the above prohibitions you will commit a criminal offence. You may be prosecuted and, if found guilty, receive a criminal penalty such as a fine or imprisonment.
4. Paragraph 2 above does not contain a complete list of everything you must not do. A wide range of restrictions on holding office is imposed under various statutes and statutory instruments. Other restrictions include (but are not limited to) being a Member of Parliament, a member of a local authority and a member of various other agencies, tribunals and bodies, as well as being a trustee of a charity or pension fund. In addition, if you are a member of a professional body this Order may have an effect on that membership.
5. If you are in any doubt as to how this Order affects you, you should take your own independent advice.
