FLORIDA WIND BAND

Our Vision

Our vision is to be the premier wind band in the Tampa Bay Area.

The Florida Wind Band is a non-profit organization in Tampa, Florida, encompassing three individual wind ensembles aimed at providing talented local musicians of all ages a musical outlet for performance. In addition to our primary adult wind ensemble comprised of the area's top professional and semi-professional musicians, the Florida Wind Band is the parent organization to Bay Area Youth (BAY) Winds and Junior BAY Winds. Both youth ensembles are aimed at providing additional high-level performance opportunities for local talented middle and high school students.

Program

Welcome to our program entitled Sacred Spaces. Throughout the evening, the Florida Wind Band will explore the many ways music is used in a church service, from celebrating weddings to mourning tragedies and everything in between. The repertoire includes hymns, a pipe organ and even a work that pays homage to Scotland where Presbyterianism originated.

Flash!

Francesca Arnone has been featured as a flute and piccolo soloist, chamber musician, orchestral musician, and educator in the United States and abroad. She has held Principal Flute, Second Flute, and Piccolo positions in orchestras in the United States and Mexico and currently performs with orchestras and opera companies throughout Florida. Now the flute professor at the University of South Florida, Dr. Arnone has taught at Boise State, West Virginia, and Baylor universities, as well as many summer festivals and camps. She has been a concerto soloist and recording artist on flute, alto flute, and piccolo, in repertoire ranging from Bach to Chen Yi. Raised in Port Charlotte, Florida, Dr. Arnone is a grateful musician nurtured by music educators in the Florida school system.

Daniel Dorff is VP of Publishing for Theodore Presser Company. A sought-after expert on music engraving and notation, he has lectured at many colleges as well as Carnegie Hall, won over 50 MPA Paul Revere Awards for Excellence in Music Engraving, and advised the leading notation software companies. He serves on the Boards of Directors for the Music Publishers' Association of the USA, Charles Ives Society, Vincent Persichetti Society, Flute Society of Greater Philadelphia, on the New Music Committee of the International Clarinet Association, and has served on the Board and committees of the National Flute Association.

"In September 2008, Kate Prestia-Schaub wrote to tell me about the International Piccolo Symposium's new composer competition. She proposed that if I write a new piccolo/piano piece, she would record a demo for me to submit to the competition, and she would submit applications to perform it at the 2009 IPS convention and NFA convention. What amazing timing! I set out to compose a flashy showpiece with a jazzy snap, lots of idiomatic scales and arpeggios, and a scary middle section, and by mid-October FLASH! was complete.

Kate followed suit and all 3 wishes came true - FLASH! won first prize in the IPS composer competition, and she performed it both there and at NFA. In the meantime many other piccoloists have added the work to their repertoire. Cynthia Ellis wrote an article about it for Flute Talk magazine, and Walfrid Kujala commissioned a band accompaniment which was premiered at NFA in 2010."

Thank you!

Dear Patron,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, we sincerely appreciate your attendance at our performance today. The mission of the Florida Wind Band is to entertain and inspire the community through live performances of high-quality wind band music, and we hope you feel just that way after our event today. There are many ways you can make a contribution to support our mission. You can become a season or concert sponsor, monthly donor, or make a one-time tax-exempt donation by visiting our website at www.floridawindband.org or by scanning the QR code below.

Please mark your calendar for our next concert on Saturday, December 10th at 6:00pm. The Florida Wind Band celebrates the Christmas season with a program of old favorites - "Silent Night", "What Child is This", "Gesu Bambino", and newer gems including "Rocket Sleigh", "The Eighth Candle", and "Three Wise Guys". We're thrilled to perform again in South Tampa at Hyde Park United Methodist Church's beautiful sanctuary, which is a setting that is guaranteed to get you in the holiday spirit!
