

About Artist

A Korean-born American painter, whose journey as a full-time artist began from witnessing the mortality of loved ones close up. An often reflected theme in her painting is humanity as sojourners in the here and now, collectively yearning for a permanent home, where ongoing redemption and hope for the future weave through current struggles and desolation.

She debuted with her first group exhibition At Will at KreateHub in Bronx, New York in July 2021, followed by a group art show People at FREIDA in Philadelphia, PA in June 2022. Her solo exhibition Desolation | Consolation was held at The Gallery at W83 in New York, New York from December 2022 through March 2023.
