

ETPrime

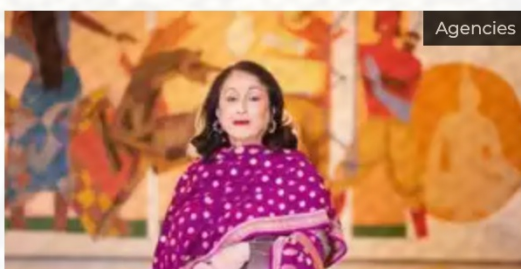

Kiran Nadar buys MF Husain's 'Untitled' painting for Rs 119 crore, setting new record for modern Indian art

By Shannon Tellis & Glynda Alves, ET Bureau • Last Updated: Mar 21, 2025, 05:30:00 AM IST

FOLLOW US SHARE FONT SIZE SAVE

Synopsis

Kiran Nadar, a prominent Indian art collector, acquired MF Husain's iconic painting 'Untitled (Gram Yatra)' for $13.8 million, setting a new record for Modern Indian art. This landmark sale highlights the growing global recognition and value of Indian contemporary art while supporting future medical training.

Agencies

Mumbai: Applause broke out Wednesday afternoon at New York's Rockefeller Center, as art collector and philanthropist Kiran Nadar reportedly outbid everyone at an eye-watering

Founder & Director of Synapse International art Gallery Mr. Rakesh Kumar Maurya with Padma Sri Kiran Nadar Ma'am.

A PROUD MOMENT FOR THE INDIAN ART COMMUNITY

Synapse International Art Gallery congratulates Padma Shri Kiran Nadar | KNMA for setting new record.

We do remember your teachings ma'am and are fully committed to incorporating them into our endeavors.