"Lose the Junk" answered promptly, was clear about the engagement, showed up on time, did more work than expected and were very very nice and professional. With "Lose The Junk" I was never worried about whether they'd show up on time and I was confident they understood what I was trying to get completed. They were priced right as well. I highly recommend them and have already booked them for another clean out.

Lose the Junk is easily the most professional, most convenient and most cost-effective junk removal service in the Greater Boston area. Their junk specialists will handle any job - large or small - and they are available on a moment's notice. Especially great for contractors and build sites. Give Jonah and his team a call today, you will not regret it.
