To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to take this opportunity to commend Renaissance South LA, Inc. for its work in the past several years serving the various communities within Southern California by helping individuals achieve their goals of wellness and leadership development.

I've had the pleasure to get to know Henry Armstrong, its Executive Director, who carries the values and integrity needed by those that service our communities, youth and families.
Renaissance South LA, carries those same values and has been working diligently in providing the most comprehensive outpatient services to the communities they serve, treating addiction and mental health disorders, assisting our youth and adults and helping them become productive members and leaders in our communities.

This organization has a tireless dedication to empowering their participants with an exceptional quality of work that continues to inspire others.

I have always found their staff to be humble, patient and passionate, with the expertise needed to provide the right services.

Based on my experience with Renaissance South LA, I would highly recommend the organization to any private and/or government entity seeking human developmental services.

If you have any questions in regards to Henry and the organization, please don't hesitate in contacting me.

Kind Regards,

Jose Luis Solache
