CONFESSION

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

God of heaven and earth, you come in close and make us yours. Equip us by your Spirit to confess our sin, embrace your forgiveness, and seek the way you set before us in your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

With honesty of heart, let us confess our sin.

Our will is shackled to sin, and we cannot break ourselves free.

Merciful God, forgive us.

We have spoken when we should have kept quiet.

Silence is kept

Merciful God, forgive us.

We were silent when we should have said something.

Silence is kept

Merciful God, forgive us.

We acted when we should have remained still.

Silence is kept

Merciful God, forgive us.

We were stationary when we know we should have moved.

Silence is kept

Merciful God, forgive us.

For the wrong we have done, for the good we have failed to do, have mercy on us, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

FORGIVENESS

Behold, now is the acceptable time; now is the day of salvation. Almighty God has mercy on us, forgives us all our sins in the name of ☩ Christ Jesus our Savior, and brings us to everlasting life.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

(11:00) APOSTLES' CREED

Living together in trust and hope, let us confess our faith.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

*I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended into hell.*

*On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.*

*I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.*

(11:00) PRAYERS

Beloved friends, in this season of repentance and healing, we accept God's invitation to be ever-mindful of the needs of others, offering our prayers on behalf of God's community in the church and the world.

A brief silence.

after each petition:

Lord, in your mercy.
hear our prayer.

the prayers conclude:

Fill us with your strength to resist the seductions of our foolish desires and the tempter's vain delights, that we may walk in obedience and righteousness, rejoicing in you with an upright heart. In the name of Christ our Savior.
Amen.

(11:00) PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you always.
And also with you.

we greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace, saying "Peace be with you" or similar words.

Worship and Public Health Concerns

Folks,

I know that some people are worried about the Corona Virus that's going around these days. I've been researching this ever since COVID-19 started spreading in Wuhan. Right now, there's no reason to change our current practice. However, since cases have been identified closer to where we are, I thought I'd share some information.

Right now, there's no reason to change anything about how we gather. I will ask, though, that if you're sick you stay home and rest and get well. Also, if you're worried, there are ways to pass the peace and receive communion that are somewhat less apt to spread illness. I'll talk through those this morning.

While we should be cautious now, just like we should be during every flu season (and all the rest of the time), there's currently no reason to change what we do as a congregation.

Please mark your calendar as we are holding a potluck farewell brunch on Pastor Matthew's last Sunday. The Brunch will follow the 9 am service (there will only be one service that Sunday). Please sign up to bring a dish to share. Sign up sheets are in the Narthex and Fellowship hall. On-line signup available through the weekly E-news. (PS. The Council is providing the Bacon).

The first First Instruction in Holy Communion class will happen on Saturday, March 21, from 9:30 'til 10:45 or so.

If there's a child in your household who's third grade, whether they've started receiving Holy Communion already or not, that child is invited to start learning about the Sacrament.

At that first class, we'll talk about eating, about feasting, about what's delicious and what's healthy; we'll make collages; we'll wander into the sanctuary and take a look at the special stuff in there (all of which has a counterpart in most homes). At least one adult should plan to stick around to talk with me while the kids are creating collages, and to watch the rest of the class from afar (but not too far).

The second part of the class meets on Maundy Thursday to make the bread for communion that evening. Then the young people participate in a welcome to the table rite in the middle of that worship service.

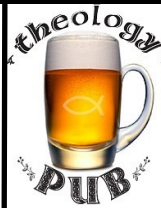

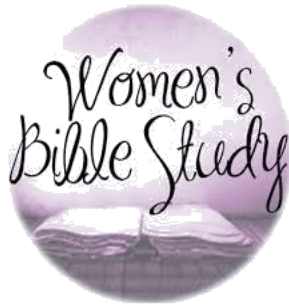

Women of Holy Love are invited to join our Bible study and enjoy fellowship, treats and lessons from the Bible. We will meet in the youth room from 9:15-11:00 am.

Studies are found in the ELCA Gather Magazine. Extra copies will be provided.

Our next study date is:

March 25 at 9:15 am.

The Cupboard is Bare

We alternate delivering donations once a month to either Aurora Interfaith or Peace with Christ Lutheran Church. Therefore, the pantry can be full one day and empty the next. Let's keep it filled so those in need can have a meal.

When donating, please look at the dates on the items to make sure they are still good and consider items such as canned meat, peanut or almond butter and nuts, canned fruits and vegetables, beans, cereal, oatmeal, pasta and sauces. Thanks!

Psalm 86:8-13

My Lord! There is no one like you among the gods!

There is nothing that can compare to your works!

All the nations that you've made will come and bow down before you, Lord; they will glorify your name, because you are awesome and a wonder-worker.

You are God. Just you.

Teach me your way, LORD, so that I can walk in your truth. Make my heart focused only on honoring your name.

I give thanks to you, my Lord, my God, with all my heart, and I will glorify your name forever, because your faithful love toward me is awesome and because you've rescued my life from the lowest part of hell.

Mark 12:1-17

Jesus spoke to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a tower. Then he rented it to tenant farmers and took a trip. When it was time, he sent a servant to collect from the tenants his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But they grabbed the servant, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. Again the landowner sent another servant to them, but they struck him on the head and treated him disgracefully. He sent another one; that one they killed. The landlord sent many other servants, but the tenants beat some and killed others. Now the landowner had one son whom he loved dearly. He sent him last, thinking, They will respect my son. But those tenant farmers said to each other, 'This is the heir. Let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' They grabbed him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

"So what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others. Haven't you read this scripture, The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. The Lord has done this, and it's amazing in our eyes?"

They wanted to arrest Jesus because they knew that he had told the parable against them. But they were afraid of the crowd, so they left him and went away.

They sent some of the Pharisees and supporters of Herod to trap him in his words. ¹⁴ They came to him and said, "Teacher, we know that you're genuine and you don't worry about what people think. You don't show favoritism but teach God's way as it really is. Does the Law allow people to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay taxes or not?"

Since Jesus recognized their deceit, he said to them, "Why are you testing me? Bring me a coin. Show it to me." And they brought one. He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?"

"Caesar's," they replied.

Jesus said to them, "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." His reply left them overcome with wonder.
