

Pastor's Report June 2024
Bold is to help me remember

Clothing Sale

- Thank you for donations and helping! $83 total raised, split between church and preschool
- With the extra time, the youth helped organize and clean out the cabinets in the entryway on the west side (Preschool side), making the Church Mice happy
- Remaining clothes will be split between Wee Cycle and Clothes to Kids Denver

Youth

- We have 7 (!!!) middle schoolers going to Rainbow Trail for Confirmation Camp
- In the fall, we'll have a discussion (with parent approval) about developmentally appropriate relationships and boundaries

Day Camp 2024

- Happening June 17-21, stay tuned for a final update
- 70+ kids, 5 RTLC camp counselors, 15 helpers

God's Work, Our Hands- Sunday, September 8, 2024

- Any takers?

Bible Studies

- AM group will meet again in Fall using different Bible studies from the Gather magazine, including one written by Bishop Elect
- PM group will meet again in August going through Fr. Richard Rohr's "Falling Upwards"

Grant Committees

- Property applied for FEMA grant (thank you, Ed!). Response by end of September.
- Congregation applied for Faithful Families Grant. Response on September 3.

Synod

- Bishop Elect Rev. Dr. Johnston Aelabouni requested congregational site information. I consulted with VRSM and filled out the questions. See document "RMS Bishop Elect Site Introductions"

Janitor

- Personnel met, decided it ought to be a contract position

Communication

- How're we doing in this area? Thoughts on returning to a quarterly newsletter in addition to eNews?

Worship

- Outdoor worship service set for August 11
- Thanks for the pulpit swap with Matt!

Time Off:

- At Rainbow Trail 6/26-29, will not physically be in the office during the week of 6/23
- Out of town 7/30-8/1
- Out of town August 19-25, pulpit supply TBD
