

BEING LIED TO

Howard James Fyvie © March 2019

We don't like being lied to
Every day they deny you
Like my life was an accident
That's the best they got but I'm not buying it

They say I'm an animal
I don't got any rationale
Like a beast that was born to kill,
I better take my ground, I better drink my fill

There's something I'm not following
They tell us be tolerant
But if we just DNA why does anyone care what we do or say?

I think I'm gonna call their bluff
I know that we were made for love
If anyone one of us can love, it's just because of a God above

*A generation full of gullible people
I say, choose Christ rather turn from the evil
I see they, get offended when I speak my cerebrum
That's only cause they in denial I know they want to believe 'em*

*Oh my gosh! The world's been tryna poison my mind
Society rejects the Truth but I ain't bound to incline
They say we ain't got no proof that you were there before time
But I say the evidence and proof is all in front of our eyes*

I know you exist God, I just wanna make them all aware of that Ignorance ain't bliss God, but I guess they all gotta give account for that

*"Bad things happen to good people" - how do we know we good in the first place
We all fall short and we all sin, so if I'm still singing then it's His Grace,*

oh yeah

*So I
Live my life for Jehova, cause I know in Him I got a purpose
This life's no an accident, trust me man you ain't worthless*

*They lie to us, they deny you but my faith in you is for certain
So I'm overcoming my stage fright cause you tore right through that curtain*

They won't stop what's coming
There's a river runnin'

Let me tell you something
This whole desert's flooding

Every knee will bow
Every tongue shout out
Eyes turned to the clouds
Its the King, bow down
