

BROUGHT TO BONES

Howard James Fyvie © 25 May 2019

We are shadows, we are dust
Fighting moth and fighting rust
Like a blade of grass that grows and grows but always fades away
You are different, you are God,
Uncreated, set apart,
Watching over all creation from beginning to the end

So many kingdoms, many thrones
So many rulers brought to bones,
But the God of ages still remains a faithful God today

So many people born again,
So many sinners turned to friend,
Every soul with a song to you, we sing

Great God, your name is forever
In your hands, our lives are forever
You only know, you only know, you only know when our days are done
You are endless, and your love forevermore

Through the fire, through the flame
Through the failure and the shame,
There's a new beginning for the one that humbly calls your name

Every winter, every spring,
In every season, worshipping,
As creation holds its breath, we sing

*Gloria, in excelsis deo
Gloria, in excelsis deo
Gloria, in excelsis deo
Gloria*

Father everlasting,
Worthy to be praised Glory in the highest Name above above all names
