

GLORY HALLELUJAH

Howard James Fyvie © February 2019

There's a God, there's a throne, there's a place we all belong
There's a king, there's a war, there's a battle waging on,

They gonna say, live for today, like it's the only thing we've got
But I don't believe, the day that I die, is really the end

We sing, glory hallelujah,
Our King, praise and honour to you

There's a fight, there's a light, there's a distant rising sun
There's a man, on a cross, there's a hope for everyone

When Christ was taken down from six feet up on a tree,
Heaven opened up for you and opened for me

We sing, glory hallelujah,
Our King, praise and honour to you
